First Freeze Of Season Expected To Hit Tonight

The first freeze of the season was forecast for northeast Louisiana tonight and the weatherman issued a warning of sleet after sundown with the outlook of clearing, cold weather tomorrow.

Temperatures here may drop as low as 26 to 30 during the night.

Highest temperature reached yesterday was 43 degrees with rainfall measured at .06 inches, according to Civil Aeronautics, Selman Field. Rain continued to fall early today and the mid-morning mercury stood at 40 degrees.

Lows expected tonight, 26 to 30, with highs of 42 to 46 listed in the forecast for tomorrow.

NATIONAL SCENE

Fires and drownings coupled with a nationwide cold wave accounted for the loss of at least 17 lives in Little Rock, Oklahoma City and the mid-west.

In the Arkansas capital, a mother, father and four of their children were killed in a blaze that destroyed their home in the northern part of the city.

In Oklahoma City, five children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a convalescent nursery.

Among other fire victims were a three-year-old Milford, Conn., girl whose four brothers and sisters had perished in a fire seven years ago, and a 70-year-old man who died in a Vermont blaze.

At least four children in Chicago and Stoughton, Wis., drowned while testing thin ice formed by the coldest weather of the season.

MISSISSIPPI

In San Francisco, a dense fog rolling in from the Pacific resulted in a 34-car chain reaction collision on the newly opened Carquinez Strait bridge. At least 32 persons were injured in the pile-up.

Rain swirled into north Mississippi early today mixing with cold.

Passman Warns New Solons About Aid Propaganda

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La.) told new members of Congress today to look out for heavy pressure from supporters of what he called "fantastic amounts" for foreign aid.

Backers of the overseas assistance program were talking, meanwhile, in terms of a billion-dollar increase in aid funds.

They contended a vigorous foreign aid program is particularly important at this time to offset the expanding Soviet program of help to underdeveloped nations.

Passman is chairman of the House Appropriations subcommittee on foreign aid, and has opposed much of the assistance program. In recent years his subcommittee has made sharp cuts in President Eisenhower's money requests, but Congress has refused to go along with the full cuts.

He sent letters to all new members of the 86th Congress saying they probably will find that "the propaganda for fantastic amounts for foreign aid may equal all the pressures you will be subjected to on all other issues combined."

NEW PROGRAM

Passman's letter was prepared before administration officials reported informally on their plans for next year's program.

The tentative plans call for between $4,200,000,000 and $4,300,000,000 of new foreign aid funds for the year starting next July 1. Congress this year appropriated $3,300,000,000 after cutting 600 million from the amount Eisenhower requested.

The new program puts more emphasis on economic aid, and somewhat less on military assistance.

Passman told the new congressmen that when the foreign aid program was begun in 1948 it was to have been completed in five

West Berlin Digs In For Long Battle

Cold War Siege Begins After Red Bid Snubbed

BERLIN (AP)—West Berliners dug in today for a six-month cold war siege. Their officials spurned the Soviet proposal to drive the Western Allies back beyond the Iron Curtain by converting West Berlin into a demilitarized "free city."

West Berliners clearly saw the next six months as a period of uncertainty.

A shopgirl gave a typical reaction: "I'm afraid that if the Allies leave, the Communist people's police would come marching in one day. If the Big Four turn West Berlin into a free city, I'll start looking for a job in West Germany. Yes, the exodus to West Germany would start immediately."

"We in West Berlin say no," Mayor Willy Brandt declared in a radio and television broadcast after an emergency meeting of his Cabinet to study Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal. All West Berlin parties, newspapers and ordinary citizens seemed to back him up.

The 44-year-old Socialist mayor, appealing for the support of the Western world, promised that West Berlin's 2,200,000 citizens would not panic as the six months proposed by Khrushchev for negotiations run out.

"We are not afraid," he said. "We will not be shaken. We will not get panicky. We will go on reconstructing. We will continue to have faith in our friends."

MEAN ABANDONMENT

The Western powers withheld their final word on the Soviet proposals, but the preliminary reaction indicated they would turn thumbs down.

The U.S. State Department said the United States would never agree to anything that would mean abandonment of the people.

Hospital Poll In Ward 5 Set Next Tuesday

Property owners in ward 5 Tuesday will vote on a $1-200,000 bond issue and a one-half mill maintenance tax for a proposed ward 5 hospital. The maintenance tax will be for five years.

Fourteen polling places have been announced for the bond issue.

The bond issue, if approved, would be paid off by a two and one-half mill tax over a period of 30 years.

Absentee voting in the issue will continue through 12 noon tomorrow in the office of the Ouachita parish clerk of court.

Properly owners who are qualified to vote will go to the following polling places on Tuesday:

Precinct 1, Agricultural Building, 702 Cypress St.; precinct 2, Old City Hall; precinct 3, community center Coleman Ave. and S. 5th; 4, Mitchell School, Mitchell Lane; 5, P and K Cafe, Paper Mill; 6, Spiller's Grocery, 310 Montgomery; 7, West Monroe Livestock Auction Barn, Highway 80.

Precinct 8, Green Gables Court (now Hallaway Court) 1311 Cypress; 9, Claiborne Street Fire Station; 10, Sawyer's Cabinet Shop, White's Ferry Road; 11, Ouachita Valley Fairgrounds, N. 7th St.; 12, Ball's Grocery, 3902 Cypress; 13, A and E Grocery, 601 Smith; and 14, Jackson's Grocery, Jonesboro Road, Bayouville.

South Bend Auto Strike Is Ended

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—The financially hard-pressed Studebaker-Packard Corp., this city's major industry, resumed production today following tentative settlement of a four-day strike.

Agreement on a new contract came Thanksgiving morning and the pioneer auto firm ordered a full force of 9,000 employees back to work today, although ratification of the pact will not be voted on until Sunday.

About 6,200 United Auto Workers went on strike Monday just as the corporation planned to beef up production of its new small car series, the Lark, which it hopes to recapture a profitable share of the market.

City Officials Set Meeting On Underpass

City officials have scheduled a meeting with the state department of highways at Baton Rouge Wednesday to discuss the location of the underpasses approved in the recent capital improvement bond issue.

Meanwhile, Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard said today that terms in a contract with Ford, Bacon and Davis to handle the engineering for the program have been agreed upon.

But attorneys are still preparing the contract and Howard said it would be several days before the pact was signed.

Ford, Bacon and Davis will engineer projects called for in the capital improvement program, such as drainage and sewerage.

JOB SUPERVISION

The engineers also will supervise the jobs, it has been stipulated in past conferences between city officials and representatives of the firm.

With hopes that the highway department will assist in the construction of two underpasses, Howard said a Monroe delegation has set a meeting with state engineers in Baton Rouge.

"Their department has numerous traffic studies," he explained. "We'll go into conference with them to discuss the details in locating the underpasses."

Present plans call for locating the underpasses at the railroad on North Fourth and South Second, but officials pointed out, during the election campaign, that the final locations would be selected on the basis of engineering studies.

"The purpose of our Baton Rouge trip is to consider these studies," Howard said.

Director R. B. Richardson, according to Citizens Committee Chairman R. L. Vanderpool Jr., indicated several months ago the highway department would assist in financing the underpasses.

However, finances will not be discussed at the Wednesday meeting, according to the mayor. He said Richardson was out of town.

"That'll be brought up at a late date," Howard explained. A meeting with Richardson is being arranged by Vanderpool.

Howard will be accompanied to Baton Rouge by representatives of the City Council, Citizens Committee and Ford, Bacon and Davis.

FATAL SHOOTINGS

2 Deaths Mar Family Holiday

WASHINGTON (AP)—A happy Thanksgiving gathering turned into terror and tragedy Thursday when a maddened, estranged husband appeared and fired a fusillade of shots at his family.

Killed after a futile attempt to escape was the wife

Mrs. Juanita Mackey. Her mother was critically injured. The gunman, Francis Mackey, ended his wild spree by taking his own life.

Police gave this account: Mrs. Mackey, 32, and the Mackeys' two children, Francis Jr., 8, and Deborah, 6, were at the home of Mackey's mother-in-law, Tena A. Fulton, where the wife and children have been living for the past two weeks. Also on hand for the Thanksgiving dinner were Mrs. Fulton's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Price.

Mackey, 36, a D. C. Welfare Department employee and part-time hacker, entered the home. Mrs. Mackey, busy with the holiday meal, turned down her husband's request to talk.

KILLED HER

Mackey drew out a .38-caliber revolver and started shooting. Amid the frightened cries of the children, Mackey fired 14 shots in all. He twice paused to reload his gun.

Mackey hit Mrs. Fulton in the head and hand. A third shot knocked off Mrs. Price's glasses as she and her husband fled into another room.

Mrs. Mackey escaped unhurt to a drugstore. Mackey chased after her. He caught her starting down a short flight of steps leading to the basement and killed her with two shots in the head.

With only two bullets left in his gun, he then pumped one into his own head and fell dead on the drugstore floor.

Neighbors said the Mackeys have been married about nine years and that Mrs. Mackey was a music teacher in an elementary school.

Funeral services for Homer Todd, 58, well known Ft. Smith livestock man who produced rodeos throughout the southwest and nation, will be held at the Ft. Smith Baptist Church at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Mr. Smith, who died unexpectedly at his Ft. Smith home Thursday, was a member of the Cowboy Hall of Fame and the Rodeo Cowboy's Association of America.

(He was well known in north Louisiana. For many years he produced and supplied rodeo stock for West Monroe's annual championship rodeo.)

Survivors include his wife, Gladys; a brother, George, and six sisters.

Could Have Affect On Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A special three-judge federal court today declared unconstitutional a portion of Louisiana's segregation laws which forbid interracial athletic contests.

The order was signed by Judge John Minor Wisdom of the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and district Judges Herbert Christenberry and J. Skelly Wright.

The ruling today knocks out that portion of the 1956 law dealing with mixed athletic events. However, it deals only with the section governing participants and does not alter separate seating facilities for the races. That issue was not before the court.

The court also issued an injunction nullifying enforcement of the law pending an appeal.

Louisiana Atty. Gen. Jack Gremlion said earlier if the law were nullified, he would have no recourse but to appeal.

Jim Dorsey, Negro light heavyweight, filed the suit, contending his career was hurt because he could not meet white fighters.

The Louisiana Legislature passed the segregation bill during the regular session of May, 1956. It went into effect the following Oct. 15. The law made it illegal for white and Negro amateur and professional players to compete in the same "athletic" event, including games, sports or contests. It also required segregated seating for spectators.

ASKS SENTIMENT

The maximum punishment was set at a fine of $1,000 and one year imprisonment.

Although commonly associated with the regulation of sporting events, the bill also banned any integrated "dancing, social functions, entertainments . . . and

Judge Extends Order Restraining Airline Walkout

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A federal judge in New York City today extended until Monday an order restraining the Air Line Pilots Assn. from striking American Airlines. The order, issued Monday, was to have expired tonight.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frederick van Fleet Jr. criticized both sides for failing to get together in a scheduled meeting this week. He said they had acted "pretty silly" and had "failed morally."

Operations of two other major airlines — Eastern and Trans World — have been halted by strikes involving about 35,000 flight engineers and mechanics.

In Miami, U.S. Dist. Judge Emmet C. Choate said he intends to issue a partial injunction in the Eastern Air Lines flight engineers strike. He did not elaborate.

Eastern has asked Choate to enjoin its engineers from striking over a requirement that they be qualified pilots before being allowed to fly in jet planes.

The engineers said wages and working conditions also are at issue and that a ruling on the pilot training requirement would not affect the walkout.

"We will continue striking on the other issues," said O. N. Roberts, chairman of the Miami EAL chapter of the Flight Engineers International Assn.

NOT HELD

American Airlines had asked Judge Bryan to extend a temporary injunction against a strike by its 1,500 pilots, who are seeking higher wages, a shorter work schedule and rules changes. After issuing the original injunction Monday, Judge Bryan had instructed counsel for both sides to

Talbott Fears Party Will Abandon State

BERNICE, La. (UPI) — Jett Talbott, one of Louisiana's "pair" of Democratic national committeemen, said today the national party will "abandon Louisiana" if it continues to recognize Camille Gravel as national committeeman.

But Gravel, who has the support of national chairman Paul Butler, contends Talbott is making an effort in the other direction—toward bolting the national party.

Talbott, elected committeeman by an angry state central committee that ousted Gravel from his post last fall, said "so far as the stage party is concerned, we'll have no further national representative" if Gravel stays at his post.

The two men appear before the national party's credentials committee in Washington in Dec. for a showdown over the matter of which is to be recognized.

Talbott, who was supported by state segregationists during Gravel's ouster, says he believes there is a "good chance" the national party will accept his committeeman credentials.

If they refuse, he says "they'll be leaving us. Gravel will be a lame duck committeeman as far as the state party is concerned."

But the Bernice businessman quashed third party talk. "We don't intend to abandon the party," he said. "We intend to stay in it. We can't be construed as a third party move. We only wish to work with the party and make it acceptable to the south."

Holiday Death Toll Climbs To 160 Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violent, accidental deaths marred the observance of Thanksgiving holiday in many homes across the nation. Traffic, as usual, was the No. 1 killer.

The traffic death toll since the start of the count for the four-day weekend far exceeded the number killed in fires and miscellaneous accidents. However, it appeared to be running near or slightly below the average for a comparable nonholiday period.

The count, which started at 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday, is to continue to midnight Sunday, covering a period of 102 hours.

Fires claimed the lives of nine children Thursday. Five died in a fire which destroyed a home for retarded and crippled children in Oklahoma City. Four children and their parents perished in a fire in the suburban area of Little Rock, Ark. Two 12-year-old Chicago boys drowned when they fell through the thin ice in a park lagoon.

Safety experts attribute the near normal traffic toll to the fact that highway travel over the Thanksgiving holiday is not as heavy as on other holidays such as Christmas, New Year's, Memorial Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day.

The National Safety Council does not make a preholiday estimate of the traffic toll for Thanksgiving. However, it estimated 470 traffic deaths could be expected for a comparable four-day nonholiday weekend at this time of year.

In a survey by The Associated Press, covering a 102-hour weekend period from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 12, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 16, the count was 394 deaths, 32 in fires and 121 from miscellaneous accidents, a total of 547.

The all-time record high in traffic deaths for a four-day holiday was 707 in the Christmas weekend of 1956. The over-all record for the same period also was set with deaths in fires and miscellaneous accidents boosting the 1956 Christmas total to 884.

other such activities involving personal and social contracts.

The bill found no opposition as it sped through both houses of the Legislature. When Gov. Earl Long prepared to sign it into law, the New Orleans Mid-Winter Sports Assn., sponsor of the Sugar Bowl, urged him to veto the bill.

Long appealed to the state for an expression of sentiment. He then signed the measure into law after saying the people were 5-1 in favor of it. The governor also predicted the measure eventually would wind up in a court test.

Paul DeBlanc, then president of the Sugar Bowl, said the group had not objected earlier because he and his associates thought it had been "inconceivable" that such a bill would be passed.

The Legislature met again in August, 1956, in a special session. The Sugar Bowl group backed a bill to modify the law by exempting cities of 300,000 population, it would have applied only to New Orleans. The bill died in committee.

Claude Monk Simons, president of the Sugar Bowl, said his group would have to consult with attorneys "to see how the ruling will affect us."

Simons said a meeting of the Sugar Bowl executive committee might be called to discuss the ruling.

He declined comment when asked if the ruling could have an effect on the Sugar Bowl's inviting the Air Force to meet top-ranked Louisiana State in the New Year's Day football game.

The Air Force, like the other military academies, has frowned on the sports segregation law.

The line told the court it should have been held in New York and the Air Line Pilots Assn. said it should have been in Chicago.

"The report is plainly not encouraging," said Judge Bryan. "Regarding the conduct of both sides, the court feels that it all gets pretty silly when one side sits in Chicago and one in New York."

"The attitude of neither party commends itself to the court. Both have failed morally in the matter."

Motorists and shoppers are requested by officials to move their cars off the parade route between the river bridge and North 6th St.

Police Traffic Director Jack Davis pointed out that this will help spectators to get a better view of the event.

Three trophies will be awarded in each of the two competing categories, along with two cash awards in each classification.

The hand compiling the most points will be presented the Fink Rotating Trophy award.

Time table for the day's activities is as follows:

10:30 a.m. to noon, finalists in all divisions; 1 p.m., selection of Miss Majorette; 1:30 p.m., deadline for band directors to draw for parade position at Chamber of Commerce office.

2 p.m., coordinating officers start marshalling parade zones; 2:15 p.m., bands take position; 2:30 p.m., passengers board Little Eagle Train; 2:45 p.m., YMCA Gray-Y boys in Mardi Gras costumes take position; 2:50 p.m., parade marshall starts moving units out of rendezvous spot, and 3 p.m., parade begins.

Santa Claus riding in the last parade vehicle, will toss souvenirs and candy to youngsters. Pink said, also, Frank Cain Enterprises of Burlington, Iowa, will have 45 Mardi Gras type clowns in step with the bands.

Simons said a meeting of the Sugar Bowl executive committee might be called to discuss the ruling.

Benson Buoyed By Action Of Corn Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Buoyed by the action of corn belt farmers in voting to do away with production controls, Secretary of Agriculture Benson is getting ready to prod Congress anew for new farm legislation.

Benson particularly wants new legislation for wheat and tobacco, which he was unable to get when the last Congress voted more flexibility for dealing with corn, cotton and rice.

Benson, long-time foe of government controls and high rigid price supports, feels the vote in favor of doing away with corn controls might prove helpful in getting what he wants in the next session.

"We have been able to get only a small part of the legislation that we really need to get at the heart of the problem," Benson told a news conference Wednesday.

More than 71 per cent of the farmers who voted in the corn referendum favored ending production controls after 25 years. Benson said they "in effect voted for more freedom to make their own decisions and voted against undue government interference in their affairs."

A. Rodzinski, World Famed Conductor Dies

BOSTON (AP) — Artur Rodzinski, one of the world's great symphony conductors—and one of the most temperamental—died Thursday night at Massachusetts General Hospital of a heart ailment.

Although references gave his age as 64, his widow, Halina, his second wife, said he was 66.

Rodzinski conducted most of the country's major orchestras, but his tenure with them often ended in stormy battles with their management.

Rodzinski's final performance was in Chicago, where 10 days ago he presented Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde" with the Lyric Opera Company in a triumphant return to the podium in the city where he was abruptly dismissed 10 years ago as conductor of the Chicago Symphony.

Rodzinski was born in the small town of Spalato in Dalmatia, of Polish parents. He spent his boyhood in Lvov in southern Poland, now part of the Soviet Union. His father was a surgeon with the Russian army.

He first came to the United States in 1925 and became a naturalized citizen in 1933.

Rodzinski was playing the piano at 6 and pursued his musical career with fanatical devotion all his life.

In 1924 in Warsaw he met Leopold Stokowski, who a year later invited him to come to the United States as assistant conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Rodzinski was a great builder of orchestras. Time and again during his career he took over rundown orchestras and built them into fine artistic groups.

After his stint in Philadelphia he took over the Los Angeles Orchestra. It built a reputation under his baton, but he quarreled with the management and left after four years.

He was in Cleveland for several years and then took over the New York Philharmonic. He quit here too after four years.

Arturo Toscanini recommended Rodzinski to direct the Salzburg Music Festival in Austria in 1937 after hearing a broadcast of the Cleveland Orchestra.

He suffered a heart attack in Rome two years ago. The Boston heart specialist Dr. Paul Dudley White flew to Rome to treat him, and it was Dr. White who advised him to enter the Boston hospital when he completed his conducting chore in Chicago last week.

of West Berlin to hostile domination.

The British government also served notice it intends to stay in West Berlin.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said he was sure the Western Allies would "reject every suggestion that aims at making Berlin defenseless and endangers its freedom."

Adenauer and French Premier Charles de Gaulle had already announced Wednesday that the West's promises to maintain the occupation must be kept.

West German Socialist leader Erich Ollenhauer, Adenauer's chief opposition, assured West Berliners that his party also stands firmly behind them.

All the Western governments indicated, however, that the 24-page Khrushchev note would be carefully considered before they come up with their replies.

Khrushchev proposed that West Berlin be turned into a "demilitarized free city" with U.N. observers keeping watch over its neutrality after Western troops pull out.

He gave the West six months to negotiate the switch but said if it turned down the proposal, the Soviet would go ahead and transfer to East Germany the control of Allied supply lines to the isolated city.

In a news conference, Khrushchev called West Berlin "that cancerous tumor" in the center of East Germany. But he denied the six months for negotiations was an ultimatum.

Allied officials welcomed the six months breathing space. They had feared the Russians would waste no time in giving control of Allied supply lines into West Berlin to the East German regime, which the West refuses to recognize. But ultimate East German control would still present the West with the necessity of dealing with the German Communists on some basis.

New Balloon Try Canceled By Navy Men

RAPID CITY, S.D. (UPI) — Navy experts packed their gear today and gave up on attempts to launch a manned balloon into the stratosphere for a telescopic study of Mars.

Navy officials announced their decision to call off the flight Thursday after a series of setbacks climaxed by the collapse of one of the 10-story high balloons.

Authorities said there would be no further attempts at launching until it was learned what caused the huge plastic balloon to split apart Wednesday night less than 45 minutes before its projected ascension.

Navy Cmdr. Malcolm D. Ross and his passenger, Dr. John Strong, a Johns Hopkins astrophysicist, were seated in the sealed gondola when the plastic balloon, filled with helium, split from top to bottom.

Cmdr. Lewis P. Pressler, who announced cancellation of the project, said the lives of Ross and Strong "have been of paramount consideration from the inception of the strato-lab project."

Market Makes Comeback Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market resumed its comeback early this afternoon from the beating taken the first two sessions of this week. Trading was active. Pivotal stocks moved ahead generally fractions to a point or so. A few issues were up around two or three points. The advance looked to brokers like a resumption of a technical rebound accompanied by some favorable news from business and industry.

Industrials, rails and utilities moved forward together. Some fair gainers were produced by the steel, motors, chemicals, rubbers, electronics and drugs.

Goodyear added more than three points and General Tire over two. Eversharp and Raytheon also rose beyond two.

American Telephone, International Telephone, Western Union, Atlantic Coast Line, Northern Pacific (ex-dividend), Johns - Manville and Union Carbide were up more than a point each.

American Motors lost a point. Studebaker-Packard rose around a point.

Other gains of about a point were made by U.S. Steel, Jones & Laughlin, Youngstown Sheet, Woolworth, General Dynamics, Anaconda, Kennecott, Westinghouse Electric, Merck and Pfizer. Long range U.S. government bonds drifted lower.

Police Reports

AUTOMOBILE RECOVERED

An automobile stolen in Monroe late Wednesday has been recovered in Demopolis, Alabama, the Monroe police department announced today. The late model vehicle, a 1958 Chevrolet Bel Air, was reportedly stolen from the Ryan - Polk lot and its whereabouts unknown until late last night.

The vehicle belonged to G. F. Conrad, 2111 Dianne street, Monroe.

Conrad received a telephone call from the Alabama state patrol that the car was found in a corn lot near Demopolis. The car was stored until it could be returned to Monroe.

THEFT BY CHECK

A Rayville man, Jimmy Davis, is being held in the city jail on a charge of theft by check. Chief James C. Kelly, Jr., said today. He was picked up early yesterday for passing a check in a local store.

Bond for Davis has been set at $500.

TRAFFIC COUNT

Three accidents, involving four injuries, were investigated by the Monroe police department yesterday.

In addition the following violation tickets were issued: two for speeding and one each for reckless driving and driving without lights.

VANDALISM

West Monroe police today are investigating a case of vandalism in the breaking last night of a large plate glass window in the Curtis Drug Store.

The window of the store, located in the McGuire Shopping Center on North Seventh street, was broken by a large metal disk, such as is used when playing shuffleboard, police said.

Race Relations In North Should Be Told

A few years back when Emmett Till, a Negro boy, was killed in Mississippi, the story was given a tremendous play in newspapers throughout the country and so was the trial. Much was made about the killing and the outcome of the trial, particularly by the "liberal" press which seized upon it as an occasion for publicity deploring the "racial atrocity" perpetrated by white Southerners.

As a result of this type of display, false impressions and half-truths, a great amount of hatred was generated which did no one any good, North or South.

Cases similar and equally as bad have occurred in the North involving the two races, but barely do you ever see the story. Even the national wire services either tone it down, or do not even relay it to their southern subscribers.

A case in point occurred Nov. 3 when a young white woman was snatched off a street in North Newark, N. J., by three Negroes in an automobile. The Negroes beat, stripped and assaulted her, and then threw her out of the car 10 miles from home. One of the Negroes told the young woman: "I was in jail for five years. I'm getting even with all of you white girls."

The story was finally found in the back section of the New York Daily News. A clipping of the story was finally sent to the Charleston, S. C., News and Courier, which checked the matter further. It found that the New York Herald Tribune also printed the story of the attack, but made no mention of the racial angle, despite the fact that the quotation was obviously relevant. No mention of the incident was found in the New York Times, though Newark is practically in the Times' backyard and since the Times is quick to inject the racial angle when cases occur in the South.

Concerning this strange way of reporting the news, the News and Courier observes: "The difference in news treatment accorded by the nationally circulated press to the race atrocity in Newark and the Emmett Till case in Mississippi must be apparent to anyone. The people of the north have not been informed of many facts about race relations, both southern and northern. They are finding out some of the facts for themselves. Perhaps they will react violently, more violently than white southerners, who have learned how to solve race problems in a peaceful and generally acceptable manner."

So far as can be determined, the report of the rape was not carried by the wire services to its southern newspaper subscribers. This is not surprising. This writer worked for a wire service and knows from personal experience that most any racial incident that occurred in the south was to receive the five-bell treatment, which means top priority. On the other hand, it was almost impossible to get a detailed story relayed on racial incidents from the north.

Had an incident similar to the Newark case occurred in the South with a Negro as the victim, it would of course be headlines throughout the nation.

If it is headline news throughout the nation when something of this sort occurs in the south, it should receive equal treatment from the northern press when it occurs there.

Twin-Cities Blessed By Our TeenAgers

In Shreveport recently, Juvenile Court Judge Chris Barnette announced a determination to break up the so-called Taylor Street and Stoner Hill gangs. These gangs are teen-agers and have caused considerable concern in Shreveport.

To emphasize his determination to eliminate what he called "this hoodlumism," Judge Barnette committed two young members of the Shreveport gangs to the State Industrial School. Both were involved in the gang fight at a Texas Street store last September 17 in which a woman clerk was injured.

No doubt this tough attitude on the part of the juvenile court there will go a long way toward breaking up the two gangs. Before too long, the members will learn that their hoodlumism will not pay off.

Monroe and West Monroe have been blessed as far as this kind of stuff goes. As far as is known, no such gangs exist and teenager here generally conduct themselves well.

Police records show that very little so-called juvenile crime exists and that no gangs are in operation.

The recent establishment of the Juvenile Court Advisory Council for Ouachita Parish by Judge William Harper was an excellent step. Already, the council has accomplished wonders, and no doubt has saved many youth from a life of crime. It's work is only beginning and within a short period of time there is no telling what tremendous results will be realized.

Certainly, the establishment of such a council was an excellent move which, will to a great degree, head off any formation of gangs and other forms of hoodlumism.

Ike And Insulting Of McCarthy

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

There being no objection, I wish to comment as follows:

The Republican party which Senator Taft personified is dead and we conservative Americans with a mistaken belief in the Constitution and in the honor of man are a scattered minority, despised and ridiculed but not humble or submissive.

Joe McCarthy is not our god as the Fascist - proletarian overwhelming majority would have it. But we take pleasure in Ike's personal embarrassment because he went out of his way to persecute, even insult, a man who fought communism and individual Communists. It was bad enough that Eisenhower defiantly threw in with Paul Hoffman, an adventurer without credentials from our party, and approved this interloper's dictum ruling McCarthy and Barry Goldwater out of our party. But Ike rubbed it in when he pointedly excluded Joe and Mrs. McCarthy and then alone from a couple of cheap cocktail skills at which attendance by men and women of dignity and character was a painful matter of political duty and prestige.

Joe and Jeannie were not actually insulted in the social sense, but the presidency, which the nation had entrusted to Ike, was put to that nasty personal use and we do not forgive that. If Ike had ever offered the slightest explanation or justification of this hostility toward a man - and his wife - noted only for his campaign against treason we might have some hope of forgiving Ike. But, in common with millions who were incited by a cruel, insatiable propaganda, Ike came out against an undesired something called McCarthyism. He had his nerve. We remember that Ike's first campaign was a timeless cheap song inserted in "Call Me Madam" entitled "I Like Ike." This was Irving Berlin's show and Berlin was a Roosevelt man so we Republicans thought at the time that Ike was a Democrat and sat on our hands. Anyway the song had no place in the show. It was strictly a commercial.

This is a matter of bitterness to many of us conservative Republicans. We took more pleasure than you might have realized in the returns from Utah where Bracken Lee, the true Republican anti-income tax candidate took away enough votes from Arthur V. Watkins to beat him. Watkins was the "modern" Republican senator who organized the plot to break McCarthy in the senate. He finally got his. The loss of that seat to the Democratic machine by means of Lee's intrusion means no loss to us. Watkins was the equivalent of a Democrat, and revenge is sweet.

In Arizona, Barry Goldwater's re-election was a great satisfaction to us. Not only was Barry read out of the Republican party by Ike's house - pet, Hoffman, in that gratuitous offense against our principles, but Ike, and even Dick Nixon, flagrantly kept out of Arizona during the campaign. Ike flew over Arizona but did not sit down and the state in which he ruled them Nixon although they bused their gossamer trying to reconcile a "modern" Republican, Goodwin Knight, with a Taft Republican, Bill Knowland, as though there were nothing to choose between wrong and right. If Ike had honored in on Barry's campaign he might have loused him up.

Barry Goldwater won enormously without Ike's help, indeed against Ike's repudiation and snub, and an unknown Republican was elected governor with him. This makes Barry, in his second term, the runner-up for the true Republican leadership, the Taft leadership of the senate, next to Styles Bridges. It is too bad that Saltonstall, of Massachusetts, defected to the "modern" wing but it can't be helped.

Rockefeller in New York is not a Republican at all. He crowds Browder to the left. He has strung along with so many Communist fronts and exploits that he is hardly preferable to Eleanor Roosevelt. His "charm" is nothing.

F. D. Roosevelt was loaded with it and he got us into the worst war in the history of man as a dodge to confuse in the public mind and the record of history the fact that he had no political remedy for the problems which he had promised to solve by statesmanship.

Rockefeller supported Vicente Lombardo Toledano, the Mexican Communist, against the American anti-Communist unionists when he was co-ordinator of inter-American affairs under Roosevelt in the war. And he picked up Davidson, the Communist sculptor, to make bronze heads of nine Latin American dictators including Communists and had him flown all over South America and paid him with our money. He told me this cost only $25,000 but I know something about this Red's prices and that was not enough. Most of those dictators are gone and forgotten now.

If Rockefeller is a Republican how come he to use Anna Rosenberg, Mrs. Roosevelt's dear old friend in the New Deal array, for his press - agent and political manager? Are there no true Republicans who could earn and use a fee?

This is evolution. We are now committed to socialism in the Fascist-proletarian mode of Mussolini but, thus far, without a Duce. Maybe we will have our own fascism substituting the cabinet and the bureau bosses for a duce and with the supreme court as the high controller and moderator of laws and money.

Most of our people are sick of the republic and the Constitution. That's for sure.

Streets Shabby And Houses Fatigued

BY JIM BISHOP

The street looked shabby and the houses seemed to lean against each other in fatigue. I parked my car and sat looking at Bramhall Avenue. I did not see it as it is, but as it was. Have you ever gone back? Don't. It's like opening a family Bible and finding a dry rusty rose from an old wedding.

The Bishops, at various times, lived in three houses on Bramhall. The flat at 627 was the first. Top floor right. The Reillys lived across the hall. Mr. Reilly was a vaudeville singer and dancer. All the Reillys had red hair. On the corner was Sulz, the druggist. He had big green and red vials in his window.

My mother saved ice money in the winter by having a box built outside the kitchen window. One of the things in it was a crock of cider full of worm salts. Once a week my father lined up the three children, all crying, and made us drink a glass of it.

Willy Stahl was my special friend. We had two-wheel bikes and we rode lazy circles on the new macadam and told each other what we were going to be when we grew up. Willy got a bad pain in the stomach one night and his grandma put a hot compress on it. He died. At the funeral, I ran all the way from his house to the cemetery to keep up with the coaches.

There was a kid named Dolan and I kept telling him that my father could beat his father because my father was a police lieutenant and Dolan's father was a policeman. Dolan and I ran home and my mother asked me what happened. When I told her she said I was getting to be more like my father every day and she hauled off and hit me on the nose.

She hit me again on the summer day when I came home with my kid brother John from the barber shop. The barber asked "How much off?" and before I could stop myself, I had said: "All off." We came up the block looking like tan cubanells and the women of the neighborhood hung out the windows laughing. As punishment, I had to dust all the furniture, polish the faucets, and take the refuse out for a week.

It was on this block that I lost $2. I was ten and my mother sent me to Appel's butcher shop. The money was clutched in my hand and I lost it. She sent me back down Bramhall sobbing, looking from one flagstone to another. I didn't find it. In the succeeding forty years, I have never been as badly frightened.

At the other end of the street was St. Patrick's School. Sister Rose Patricia was the principal. Among the nuns were Sister Maria Alacoeque, who is still my friend; Sister Marie Agatha, Sister Helen Dolores and Sister Maria Eustelle. Father Edward A. Kelly was the pastor and once a month he showed up in class to read the report cards out loud. He used to look at me, then shake card, then look at me, then shake his head.

From the classroom windows, I could see upper New York Bay and the back of the Statue of Liberty. I used to look at the big ships, outward bound, and dream of where they were going. A ruler on the knuckles stopped the dream.

My mother was short and pretty. She had long brown hair with copper glints in it. Her eyes were as blue as pale china and she had a small pert nose. She held her head high, even when we were broke. To us, she taught purity, modesty and honesty - in that order. It wasn't enough to love God; we had to be afraid of Him too.

She had a beautiful figure and wouldn't go to the corner grocery store, unless she was dressed to the brows. All of us had to dress for breakfast and, on Sundays, we strangled in Buster Brown collars and red bow ties. The most we were allowed to do was to sit on the stoop.

Right here at the corner of Bramhall and Sackett is where the big fire burned in the middle of the street. My father came off duty before dawn and he looked happy and he said we could get out of bed. We dressed in the gloom and ran down to Sackett Street and saw men piling barrels and crates on a big fire. The flames curled red and yellow to the dark sky.

Sparks trailed off in showers and we could hear fire engine sirens. There were other fires on other streets and the grownups were laughing. I was eleven. I asked a man what happened. "The war is over," he said. "Germany surrendered."

I put the car in low gear and started off. Now I am 51. Bramhall looks tired and old. The people I knew are all gone. Don't ever go back...

Lots Of Things Can Happen In Two Years Politically

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Lots of things can happen in two years — and one may be that Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller will not remain the only personalities prominent in the discussion of prospective Republican nominees for the presidency. For there is always the possibility that the name of Chief Justice Warren will also be tossed into the ring.

Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers Union, told a television audience the other day that, among others, Chief Justice Warren would make a good presidential nominee in 1960. This is a significant endorsement from the man who is being hailed as having a powerful voice in the American electorate. In view of the signal success of the labor unions recently in electing to Congress a majority of Democrats, the importance of such a tribute cannot be minimized.

Mr. Warren has himself denied any presidential ambitions and has made his disclaimer about as positive as anyone can. But it will be recalled that Associate Justice Charles Evans Hughes said virtually the same thing several times before he was nominated by the Republican party in 1916. Mr. Hughes told this correspondent in no uncertain terms just a few days before the Republican National Convention that he couldn't conceive of his being nominated. He pointed out that he had not encouraged anyone to get delegates for him — indeed, he disavowed them — and had publicly refused to allow his name to go on the ballot in any primary elections. But he was drafted just the same.

Chief Justice Warren won the governorship in California in 1946 as the nominee of both parties. He is known as an outstanding vote getter. Noting that Messrs. Knowland and Nixon were unsuccessful in their efforts in the last California campaign, many Californians say Mr. Warren could have won if he had been a candidate this time. He made a speech in San Francisco last month on federal-state relationships which was considered by some observers as having political overtones, since it was delivered during the campaign.

It is true that Mr. Warren would not attract any Southern states because of the views he expressed in the desegregation case in 1954, but the Republican party can write off the possibility of winning any electoral votes in the South no matter who the Republican nominee may be. The sending of federal troops to Little Rock ended for years to come any chance for the Republican party in the South.

But Chief Justice Warren is the type of political personality who, if he could be urged, could get the so-called liberal vote and the labor vote and, of course, the Negro vote overwhelmingly in the North. If the criterion is what kind of showing a nominee could make among minority groups generally, then, politically speaking, there are potent reasons for considering Earl Warren.

It is even possible for Mr. Warren to become the Democratic party nominee — if his record on so-called liberal issues is matched against that of any other governor or former governor whose name has been offered thus far on the Democratic side. There was a time not so long ago — 1948 and 1951 — when in the pre-convention talk Dwight Eisenhower was often mentioned for both tickets, and indeed he was endorsed for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1948 by prominent Democratic leaders, including some from the ranks of labor. Since Mr. Warren has been so popular in the Democratic party in California, his name is one the Democrats might toss about, just as they did that of General Eisenhower only a few years ago.

The one drawback for the Democrats in considering any Warren for President movement is that the "solid South" would truly rebel at the polls if he were named. But judging by the strategy of some of the Northern leaders in Congress who are pressing for "closure" and drastic legislation on "civil rights," those same leaders must feel that the electoral votes of the South are not at all necessary and that the victory in 1960 will be a landslide for the Democratic presidential nominee without the South's votes.

Earl Warren is a man for whose rise the Republican party is largely responsible. For he owes his appointment on the high court to the recommendations received by President Eisenhower from influential members of the Republican party. Also, the desegregation decision of 1954 is in conformity with the Republican party's protestations on "civil rights" over a long period. Certainly Mr. Nixon's reference in a public speech to "a great Republican Chief Justice Earl Warren" now will be recalled, even if, as the Vice President spoke, there was some doubt whether he intended to put a vocal comma after the word "Republican."

If the Republicans really feel they must go "modern" to win next time, they have in Mr. Warren, as a presidential nominee, the incarnation of "modernism" in American politics.

Russian Embassy In U. S. Is A Little More Friendly

BY FULTON LEWIS

WASHINGTON—Now that Nikita Khrushchev is opening up his doors to such as Walter Lippmann and Cyrus Eaton and Eric Johnston, the Russian Embassy in Washington has received similar instructions to put on the friendly act.

Under the direction of Ambassador "Smiling Mike" Menshikov the Russian Embassy sent their second secretary, I. P. Arazov, to address a group of college students in Washington the other night. After he finished reading his stiff and awkward half-hour speech, Mr. Arazov was interviewed by a member of my staff, William Schulz.

The second secretary of the Russian Embassy is a dedicated young Communist in his thirties who smiled bravely while he was questioned on Soviet "economic progress." Whenever he was unable to answer a question himself, he would reach into his briefcase for a long and tedious statement by Mr. Khrushchev which he read in a monotone. If pressed on that answer he would read the same statement over again.

Mr. Arazov is billed as the Embassy's economic expert. He spoke on the new seven year plan for economic growth which Mr. Khrushchev has just introduced after junking the five year plan that the U.S.S.R. was in the middle of. If Mr. Arazov is a typical young Soviet economist and planner—and he must be if the Embassy sends him out as its "expert"—then this country need have no fears about Russia passing us in economic production.

Mr. Arazov's answers in his interview provide a penetrating insight into the Communist mind. Question—Professor David Dalin of Yale University has said that, based on reports from Russian escapes, slave labor is an integral prop to the Soviet economy, and that 12-15 million people are engaged in forced labor. Would you care to comment?

Answer—There is no slave labor in the Soviet Union. I read these reports in American newspapers, but there is no such thing in our country.

Question—You spoke of "developing our country with the same methods we have used in the past." Do you plan to develop the Ukraine in the same manner you did the period 1930-33, when according to all observers there were from three to six million peasants deliberately starved to death because they resisted collectivized agriculture?

Answer—No that is not true; that is reactionary propaganda and lies.

Question—Speaking of collectivization, how can you explain that according to your own statistics production of grain dropped from over 800 million centners under the czars to 699 million after you collectivized all your farms?

Answer—Well I don't know about those figures. I don't know how to explain those figures.

Question—If Russia's agricultural system is so well mechanized, why is half of your country engaged in agriculture? Here less than 10 per cent feed the whole country, and much of the rest of the world.

Answer—We do not want automation in our country. Everyone must have work. That way there is no unemployment.

Mr. Arazov went on to explain more about the Communist economic system. He told of how it would surpass the United States in the production of everything within twelve years. Mr. Arazov seemed distressed at some of the questions that were asked him, because they were based on the "propaganda in American newspapers."

It seems that the American people were also brainwashed on such subjects as H u n g a r y, Stalin's "mistakes," the Russians, good intentions, Soviet broken promises and Boris Pasternak.

And it seems that Mr. Arazov had the answers on those questions, too. More of that tomorrow.

How To Keep Well

OUR BUSTLING CELL FACTORY

The cells of the body are being replaced constantly. The old cells are not necessarily worn out but are replaced because this is the way living tissues operate. The structure of the body differs from the static status of bricks in a building or steel in an auto.

The bone marrow is the factory for the production of red cells; it is here that the 1 per cent destroyed every day are replaced. There are about 25 trillion cells in the five quarts of blood in the body and each cell lives approximately 120 days. Since the rate of formation ordinarily equals the rate of destruction, the bone marrow must produce 2,500,000 red blood cells per second, almost 20 pounds in a year.

The cells lining the gastrointestinal tract multiply at rates greater than those of the bone marrow. This may explain why a minor abrasion inside the mouth heals within a few hours. Some of the chemical substances of the body turn over more rapidly. The protein of the blood, for example, is replaced every four weeks but the renewal of the protein of the lens of the eye may take as long as two years.

The process is going on in every tissue and chemical in the body. The only visible evidence is flakiness of the skin when the uppermost layers fall off.

Cells or groups of cells grow much more rapidly when removed from the body and cultivated in test tubes; cell multiplication takes two or three weeks often takes only two to three days in the laboratory.

Alexis Carrel kept a fragment of the heart muscle of a chicken alive for nearly 20 years. Sections had to be cut off from time to time because the tissues grew rapidly. The volume of heart muscles removed over this period weighed five to six times that of the original chicken.

One theory on the cause of cancer is based on the possibility of a mistake being made in the replacement process. A normal cell is replaced by one capable of behaving like cancer. If it survives, its descendants will be cancer cells. Even if the odds were one in a million that this would occur, a large number of cancer cells could be expected in a lifetime. The body resents these foreigners and builds up defenses to kill them. This is the reasoning behind the possible development of a vaccine to protect us against cancer.

KICKS SELF

F. D. writes: When I walk I often kick myself on the ankle. Do you think this could be corrected with special shoes?

REPLY

Yes, Bars can be placed on the soles of the shoes to alter the stance and the way the weight is distributed on the feet when walking. You must help by learning to walk properly. We have a leaflet on this topic that may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.

SHOCK THERAPY

Mrs. J. writes: How do you go about getting shock treatments for a depression?

REPLY

See your physician. If he thinks you need it, he will arrange a consultation with a psychiatrist who utilizes this type of therapy.

ECZEMA ON LEG

F. R. writes: Could severe eczema from knee to ankle be caused by allergy in a woman of 80?

REPLY

Possible but not probable. Eczema in this area is more likely to be caused by poor circulation.

Answer—No that is not true; that is reactionary propaganda and lies.

Question—Speaking of collectivization, how can you explain that according to your own statistics production of grain dropped from over 800 million centners under the czars to 699 million after you collectivized all your farms?

APPEAL MADE

Good Fellows Off To Slow Start

The cup of thankfulness was full to overflowing here in the Twin Cities yesterday, from many indications, but for some reason or other the spirit was not reflected in response to the appeal of the Good Fellows for funds with which to provide a happy Christmas for less fortunate ones of the community.

Had it not been for the graciousness of one lady in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the Good Fellows cupboard would have been as bare on Thanksgiving Day as Old Mother Hubbard's kitchen cabinet.

At the same time, there were numerous letters from young and old asking the Good Fellows to please remember them this Christmas. That, and the fact that every other kind of mail except the mail order catalogue was delivered to the News-Star — Morning World yesterday, is proof enough that it wasn't Uncle Sam's post office workers who were responsible for the lack of response.

SENDS GIFT

Mrs. H. G. Prophit, Sr., who is as it all adds up in the long run. In a neat hand, one mother writes:

"I have 11 children at home, seven of them in school. It takes about all my husband makes to feed and clothe them and send them to school. I realize that Christmas is not far away, and we don't have the money to spend to give them a good Christmas. Anything you could give would be greatly appreciated. These children range in ages from one year to 16."

REQUEST

Little Niki laboriously wrote in her obviously very youthful block letters that she would appreciate an "Elvis Presley guitar, a little girl's gown, and a bride's maid's gown with some flowers and a hat that is beautiful."

Wouldn't it be a comfort to know that this little girl woke up Christmas morning and found these cherished articles under her Christmas tree?

Another little girl who has just started school is asking Santa Claus to bring her a doll, a tea set, some school clothes and "anything else you find with my name on it." She is six and a half years old and says that she certainly would be grateful if she is remembered on Christmas.

In a day and time when a business of any kind whatsoever receives an abundance of mail each day, it is too easy to glance at a letter and pay attention only if it pertains to something of a very personal or business nature. However, the letters that pour

Higgs Is Named Ward 1 Officer By Gov. Long

Gov. Earl K. Long has appointed Edward G. Higgs constable for ward 1 of Ouachita parish. He is expected to be sworn in sometime today.

State Representative Lawrence Gibbs said late yesterday that he had been informed Higgs had received the nod from the governor.

The new constable is the first law officer permanently located in ward 1, Sterlington. Currently the parish sheriff department provides protection for the area.

Last year a state trooper was assigned to the area. However, later the trooper's area was extended to include Morehouse parish.

in to Good Fellows every year at this time force a person to sit and ponder. The poignancy of those from persons asking help touching the human emotions strongly. Those letters from persons helping to make life more pleasant for their less fortunate fellow men give grounds for pause to realize that still in this world there are those who do care.

Nixon Charm Students At Oxford U.

OXFORD, England (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon showed kind words on Nelson A. Rockefeller in a bantering exchange with Oxford University students today.

He said the wealthy Republican governor-elect of New York will make a splendid governor and would be an excellent campaigner and a fine candidate if nominated for the presidency in 1960.

A chat about money got Nixon's visit off to a good start.

"Mr. Nixon, is it true that you have come here to get a loan?" asked one girl among the 250 students who faced him in a light-hearted question and answer session.

"If anyone has any money," replied Nixon, "I'd like to hear about it."

The students laughed and applauded.

Several students then tried a few teasing questions about the Nov. 4 elections and particularly about Rockefeller. The Republican visitor wasn't ruffled.

"New York was one of the bright spots in the elections," he replied. "Nelson Rockefeller is one of the best candidates I have ever seen in public life."

"I think he will make a splendid governor."

The answer drew a loud laugh. The students' inference appeared to be that Nixon might not approve him for any other office.

But Nixon quickly added: "If he should get the nomination for the presidency in 1960, he will make an excellent campaigner and fine candidate."

The vice president took on the student questioners in a hall at Rhodes House. Standing with him were U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney; and the British ambassador to Washington, Sir Harold Caccia.

Mrs. Ott Will Recover—Doctor

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Mrs. Mel Ott's physician said last night he expects the widow of the baseball star Mel Ott to "recover completely, barring any unforeseen complications."

Mrs. Ott was injured in an auto collision near Bay St. Louis, Miss., Nov. 14. The driver of the other car was killed, and Ott died a week later.

EXPULSION STUDENTS

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—The government Wednesday announced expulsion of more than 200 South African students from the Natal Amantimoti Training College, formerly operated by American missionaries. The American missionaries moved out rather than submit to the Bantu (native) Education Act under which the government recently took control of all African education.

Search Resumed For Fisherman

HOVLAND, Minn. (UPI)—The Coast Guard resumed a search today for a young fisherman whose disappearance in a small skiff on Lake Superior almost cost the life of a heroic friend.

Richard Hammar, 26, missing since Tuesday, was feared drowned in the lake's icy waters.

Northeast Louisiana Deaths

RICHARD SMITH
Final rites for Richard Smith, 36-year-old West Monroe resident, were conducted Friday at 3 p. m. at Bayou Mason Baptist Church near Newellton.

Smith died unexpectedly Thursday at his home. He had lived in West Monroe for the past one and one-half years.

Lone Fatality At Colfax Is State's Only Traffic Death

Law enforcement officers today were breathing a prayer of thanks for careful motorists who kept the Thanksgiving holiday death toll down to one in the state.

Mary Judy Sparrow, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sparrow of Colfax, was killed instantly in a highway accident five miles south of Colfax yesterday.

Mary Thornton, 15, also of Colfax, was injured. She is hospitalized at Baptist Hospital, at Alexandria for observation.

REPORTED GOOD

The only major area accident occurred in Monroe yesterday when four persons were injured in a two-car smashup at the intersection of Winnboro Road and Berg Jones Lane.

One of the four persons injured, Lavelle Holley, 42-year-old Negro, Jarvis Alley, Monroe, was reported in critical condition with head and internal injuries. He, along with two others was in the St. Francis Hospital.

The two others hospitalized at St. Francis were Joe Seward, 18, of 16-B George Breeze Apartments, who suffered lacerations of the head, face and a foot fracture; and Thomas H. Weems, 17, 1110 Hinton street, West Monroe, face lacerations. The conditions of both were reported good.

The fourth person injured, Beatrice Kilpatrick, 30, Negro, Jarvis Alley, was taken to the Conway Memorial Hospital, where she was reported to have suffered a broken left foot.

A third Negro man, Robert Burks, 44, Jarvis Alley, was ticketed by Monroe police with reckless driving. He apparently was not hurt in the accident.

Former Monroyan, Sol Cahn, Dies; Rites Pending

Sol Cahn, 82, a former resident and businessman of Monroe died at his residence in Miami Beach, Fla., late Thursday following a short illness.

Funeral services were incomplete early today but will be in charge of Hixon Brother's Funeral home of Monroe.

Mr. Cahn was born in Ruelzheim, Germany, and came to this country in 1899, settling first in south Louisiana.

He came to Monroe in the early 1900's and was connected with several Monroe businesses before establishing his own women's ready-to-wear store in 1910. He retired in 1936 and made his home in Monroe and Florida.

Mr. Cahn maintained membership in the congregation of B'nai Israel and the B'nai B'rith men's club here. He assisted several members of his family in migrating from Europe to this country over the past 20 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sally Cahn six nephews: Eugene and Oscar Cahn, both of Monroe; Kurt Ackerman, New Iberia; Joseph and Sol Heiman, both of New Jersey; and Leo Heiman of Memphis three nieces: Mrs. Leon Saks, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Earnest Levy, San Francisco; and Miss Lillie Cahn, New York City, and several grandnieces and nephews.

V.P. Has To Borrow Tux For Function

LONDON (AP) — "I'll never let anybody else pack Richard's clothes again," says Mrs. Richard Nixon.

And for good reason, too, after what happened to the vice president at the Thanksgiving dinner he gave for Queen Elizabeth II at the U.S. Embassy.

Just 45 minutes before the Queen arrived, Dave Ball, Nixon's valet, groped around for Nixon's tuxedo. But he couldn't reach it. It was in Washington.

So they lined up everyone in Nixon's party to be measured. Someone would have to yield his tuxedo. The frantic measuring was still in full gallop when Prime Minister Macmillan, Adm. Lord Mountbatten and other British nobles arrived.

Only 15 minutes before the Queen herself showed up, the search ended with Jim Bassett of Los Angeles, a newspaper friend of Nixon.

But it was an unhappy fit. Nixon appeared at the door in meet the Queen in a tuxedo that sagged in front. The sleeves were too long. So was the jacket.

Nixon tugged at the sleeves and the back and looked pretty uncomfortable. "Somebody in Washington a week ago forgot to pack the tuxedo," said Pat Nixon.

"This is the first trip he ever went on that I didn't pack for him. It will never happen again."

Report No Cause For Alarm In Diphtheria Flurry

ALEXANDRIA, La. (UPI) — Health officials said today there was no cause for alarm of an outbreak of diphtheria at Bunkie, La., where an outbreak of the dread disease has occurred.

The death of Cheryl Kay Waddell, 8, in a Shreveport hospital Wednesday night was attributed to a "clinical case of diphtheria," but doctors said test to confirm the assumption have not been completed.

Four other children were placed under observation at the Shreveport hospital. The four were members of the Wade Marcotte family of Bunkie. One of them was confirmed to have a clinical case of diphtheria.

However, Dr. A. N. Evans of Rapides parish said it appeared that diphtheria cases have been confined to a small section of Bunkie, and that all persons who contacted the children are believed to have been found and immunized.

Funeral services will be held from Liberty Baptist Church near Haile, La., at 10 a. m., and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Hollis died at his home at Haile about 6:30 p. m., Thursday from an illness.

Kilpatrick's funeral home in Farmerville will be in charge of the arrangements.

Traffic Light Installed At N. Fourth, Pine

A traffic signal at the intersection of North Fourth and Pine streets has been installed and is now in service. The light was put up by the Louisiana State Department of Highways.

One of the bottlenecks for traffic moving across North Fourth street, Pine now affords motorists easy access into and across the principal thoroughfare. North Fourth from DeSiard to Louisville avenue serves as a portion of Louisiana Highways 165 and 15, north and south.

Since the widening of Pine street last year by the City of Monroe, the amount of traffic utilizing the street has increased tremendously. Monroe Chief of Police James C. Kelly, Jr., said today. This principally was the reason for the request from the City of Monroe to the state department of highways for installation of the signal.

Nine accidents, involving four injuries, are on record for the intersection from January 1 to May 8 of this year, it was reported. In all incidents, a motorist was attempting to move across the intersection.

ON DESIARD

Zale's Jewelry Opens Tomorrow

A formal ribbon cutting ceremony set for 9 a. m. Saturday will open Monroe's newest jewelry store, located at the corner of DeSiard and St. John streets.

Present for the formalities of the Zale's Jewelry Store opening will be Mayors W. L. "Jack" Howard and J. Allan Norris of Monroe and West Monroe.

Also on hand for the event at 200 DeSiard Street will be officials from the company's executive offices in Dallas, southern zone supervisor Mel Berns and Jay Lebowitz of Shreveport, district manager.

"We are delighted that Zale's buying power will make available to residents of the northeast Louisiana area quality merchandise at economical prices," Robert Kahn, manager of the new Zale's outlet said.

SOUTHERN ZONE
Mel Berns, vice-president and supervisor of Zale's southern zone, has jurisdiction over operations of more than 30 Zale's jewelry stores in six southern states.

A veteran of more than 20 years in the jewelry business, Berns joined Zale's in 1940 in a sales capacity and has advanced through assistant manager, store manager, and district manager to his present position.

Bern's area extends from Columbus, Ga., in the east to Midland, Tex., in the west and includes stores in the states of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia. Bern's headquarters are in San Antonio.

What is a father's fondest wish? First a prayer of thanksgiving for past blessings. Now, a wish for the future. What will it be? Simply, perhaps, that his family will never want for the good things of life. That, among other things, they will always have a home of their own and that the children will be able to complete their education. Someday, too, a comfortable retirement for himself and his wife. Reasonable wishes, every one. But he knows, as does every good provider, that such wishes need help in coming true. ## Algeria Holds 1st Election Since 1951

ALGIERS (AP)—Algeria today began its first legislative elections since 1951 with the choice limited to candidates supporting continued French rule.

Balloting for 67 members in the French National Assembly will continue through Sunday, the day European France completes the choice of its deputies. The new election law requires that two thirds of the Algerians elected must be Moslem.

Premier de Gaulle had hoped Algeria would elect representatives of all factions including the nationalist rebels. But the rebels boycotted, and all the candidates are colonialist Europeans or Moslems dedicated to preservation of complete French control.

De Gaulle probably will fly here next Wednesday for a five-day visit, a Paris announcement said.

There was no indication what he hoped to achieve.

Rural voting is being spread over three days to permit French troops to protect ballot boxes from rebels as different villages are called to vote. Cities will vote Sunday.

Nomadic tribes of the Sahara will elect four deputies. The 10 deputies from French overseas territories in the last Assembly will retain their seats without running again.

In France itself the election of 465 deputies is being held in two rounds. Only 41 candidates won majorities—and seats—last Sunday.

Coya And Husband Get Together For Holiday Reunion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The family of Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.) got together for Thanksgiving dinner, but neither she nor her husband Andy would say whether they had settled their differences.

The dinner, at which they were joined by their adopted son Terry, 18, came a day after Knutson had withdrawn a $200,000 suit charge. The following day, Knutson filed a suit against William Kjeldahl, wife's affections.

Asked the meaning of the get-together, Knutson told newsmen that since it was a family dinner, there would be no comment. Mrs. Knutson agreed.

Knutson publicly urged his wife last summer to quit politics and return to their Minnesota home. She refused and won renomination to a third term in the House, but was beaten in the November election.

Mrs. Knutson's executive secretary, Kjeldahl, denied the charges on which it was based, and Knutson, in withdrawing the action, said, "It was not my idea in the first place." He said it was prompted by others who wanted his wife defeated.

Mrs. Knutson said she had no idea now whether she will seek another congressional term in 1960.

AS PREDICTED

7 Perish Over Miss. Holiday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mississippi's Thanksgiving holiday accident toll climbed to the predicted seven today with more than half of the holiday period remaining.

Two Mississippi State University students, Billy Nored and Tootie Rimmer, received fatal injuries in a two-car collision near Greenwood early today.

Officers said Rimmer was killed in the mishap and Nored died shortly after he was admitted at Greenwood Leflore Hospital.

The accident occurred on Highway 82 just outside the city limits.

Two others died near Columbus early today when their car smashed into a bridge abutment on Highway 82 five miles west of Columbus. They were identified as Charles Fulton, 25, of Carbon Hill, Ala., and Kenneth Mason, 21, of Forest City, Ala.

The highway patrol said Fulton was killed and Mason died later at a Columbus hospital.

Albert Allen, a Sardis Negro, was killed last night while walking on a county road one mile northeast of Sardis, the highway patrol said. The patrol said Jimmy Lee Ellis, driver of the car which hit him, was held with charges pending.

Hollis Underwood, 11-year-old Fulton youth, was struck and killed by a car as he ran across the highway near his home yesterday. His 14-year-old brother Jimmy was seriously hurt.

Minnie Brown, 17-year-old Magee girl, was killed Wednesday night near her home when she fell from one car and was hit by an oncoming vehicle.

The highway patrol has predicted seven persons would die of traffic injuries in Mississippi during the holiday period ending Sunday midnight. The count began at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Business Pulling Out Of Recession More Mechanized

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Business is pulling out of the recession more mechanized than ever.

Despite the much advertised slowdown in business spending for new production capacity, industry today boasts many new processes perfected in the last year and new shortcuts in methods of doing old jobs.

The year has brought new giant tools, conveyers, mixers, electronic controls and measuring devices.

The recession itself has given impetus to much of the gains and sparked much of the new automatic equipment placed on the market.

The first noticeable result has been that we are able today to produce more things with fewer men. This, on the one hand, keeps the problem of unemployment to the fore. But, on the other, it has helped hold back the tide of inflation.

The new wonders run all the way from a vending machine that can make change for a dollar bill to a block of cattle salt in which is automatically imbedded a precisely measured ration of nutrients, hormones and other essentials for the well-being of old bossy.

The currency changing machine is made by National Rejectors, Inc., of St. Louis, and boasts of being able to detect and reject a counterfeit bill as well as make change for a good one.

The automatic batching device is a product of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. It mixes and weighs chemicals or other ingredients to formula and can be controlled, if desired, from an office a mile away.

Here are a few other examples of automation that are changing the industrial scene:

Rockwell Manufacturing Co. makes a machine used in retail outlets of A. C. Horn Co., a subsidiary of Sun Chemical Corp., which lets a customer order up any desired color or tint from among 1,152 possible choices, mixing it by spinning a dial.

Pullman-Standard has a heavy duty, highly automated seam welding machine. Sometimes weighing as much as 1,000 tons, these giants (developed shortly before the recession) can cradle a 30-ton freight car, turn it around in their huge arms and seam weld everything that formerly used to be riveted.

New Cardinal Disappoints Aged Holiday Celebrant

BOSTON (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing disappointed at least one of the guests at his annual Thanksgiving Day party for the elderly and aging.

He carved the first turkey. He distributed medals to the staff of the restaurant entertaining his 1,200 guests. He went from table to table shaking hands and saying hello.

He even joined three young priests and the audience in singing "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Everybody had a high old time. But the new cardinal neglected one detail.

Said one elderly woman guest, remembering the clog the archbishop did at the same party last year: "I'm disappointed that the cardinal didn't dance. He's such a beautiful dancer."

FAIR PARK, LAKE CHARLES

Triple-A Cast For Playoff Set

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair Park and Lake Charles won their district triple-A titles yesterday and completed the cast for the state championship playoffs.

Two fourth-quarter touchdowns gave Fair Park a 12-12 tie with Byrd and the north district crown. It was the final regular season game on the triple-A schedule.

In a playoff for the southwest district title, Lake Charles topped Lafayette 27-7. Lake Charles won by the same score in their regular season games. They had finished their district seasons with identical 4-1 records.

Fair Park will meet Warren Easton, New Orleans public champions, Dec. 5 at Shreveport in a semi-final round of the state playoffs.

Lake Charles has a first-round bye and will meet the Jesuit-Istrouma winner in the semi-finals. Jesuit, New Orleans Catholic League champion, and Istrouma, southeast district winner, are bidding for an unprecedented fourth straight state title, play Dec. 5 at Baton Rouge.

Byrd scored in the first and third quarters against favored Fair Park and was in front 12-0 at the start of the fourth quarter. Quarterback Sonny Parnell made both Byrd touchdowns on one-yard sneaks. Byrd's two conversion tries were blocked.

Tommy Terry started Fair Park in the first quarter.

College Football Season Ends Tomorrow

Army-Navy Game Leads In Action & Thrills

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Four major bowl berths will be filled and Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium will be packed for the Army-Navy game tomorrow as college football fires its last blast of the regular season.

Army, shunning bowls, takes a 7-0-1 record against Navy. It was Pitt, knocked out of the major bowl picture by Penn State's 25-21 upset yesterday, that marred the Cadets' record 14-14. Tulane and Notre Dame rapped Navy, with the Irish laying it on 40-20.

Notre Dame, which closes at Southern California tomorrow, was the only common foe on the Army and Navy schedules, and the Cadets beat the Irish 14-2.

This is the 59th game in the service series and a capacity crowd of 102,000 is expected. Army has a 29-24 edge over the Mid-ies in the classic, which has seen five ties.

While Army and Navy battle on national TV over NBC, at 1:15 p.m., EST, a half dozen or so games will decide who will be on TV in the year-end bowl games.

Only two of the five major bowls are filled. Iowa and California will play in the Rose Bowl, and Oklahoma and Syracuse fill the Orange Bowl. But the Cotton Bowl needs a team to face Texas Christian, the Sugar Bowl needs an opponent for Louisiana State and the Gator Bowl has two berths to fill.

Iowa, California, Syracuse and LSU have completed their regular seasons. Oklahoma shut down down shop against Oklahoma State, TCU calls it quits against Southern Methodist.

Of the top 10 teams in the latest Associated Press poll, five already have been picked for bowls (LSU, No. 1; Oklahoma, No. 3; Iowa, No. 4; TCU, No. 7, and Syracuse, No. 10). Tree are ineligible (Auburn, No. 2; Wisconsin, No. 6, and Ohio State, No. 9) and one (Army, No. 5) turns its back on such doings.

That leaves Air Force (No. 8) as the only top 10 team still to be had. And the Cotton Bowl likely will get the Falcons (8-0-1), if they whip Colorado tomorrow.

The Sugar Bowl reportedly is set to tap Clemson (7-2) to face unbeaten, untied LSU New Year's Day if the Atlantic Coast Conference champion beats Furman tomorrow.

That leaves SMU, Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Florida, South Carolina, Vanderbilt and Rice on the prowl for the Gator Bowl bid—or the Sugar and Cotton Berths should Air Force and Clemson slip up.

SMU needs an upset over TCU to make it. Mississippi plays Mississippi State, Tech takes on Georgia. Florida finishes against Miami. Vanderbilt meets Tennessee and Rice plays Baylor.

South Carolina (7-3) wrapped up its regular season yesterday by whipping Wake Forest 24-7. Mississippi Southern also a bowl prospect, locked up a perfect (9-0) season in the Thanksgiving Day action, defeating Chattanooga 20-13.

Texas (7-3) took itself out of possible bowl consideration after rapping Texas A&M 27-0. Rutgers (8-1), which finished last weekend, got tired of waiting and also withdrew from the list of post-season prospects although under serious consideration by the Blue Grass Bowl committee.

The Blue Grass, with Alabama a top choice, will name its pairing Monday. Pitt's still alive for this one, along with Tulsa and Florida State in addition to the clubs already listed by the major bowl committees. Alabama (5-3-1) closes tomorrow against Auburn (8-0-1), which is looking for its second straight unbeaten season but is banned from bowl play by NCAA probation.

Tulsa (7-3) finished with a 25-6 victory over Wichita yesterday. Virginia Tech eliminated Virginia Military from the post-season hopefuls 21-16. Cincinnati defeated Miami, Ohio 18-7 in a battle of minor bowl prospects.

CLASS B BI-DISTRICT TILT

Holly Ridge Tackles Plain Dealing At Ruston Tonight

HOLLY RIDGE, La. (Special)—Holly Ridge's 15 Eagles, the school's first representatives in the state football playoffs, meet Plain Dealing, 1-B king, in a class B bi-district playoff at 8 Friday night at Ruston's Tech Stadium. Champions of district 2-B with a spotless league record, Coach Elmo Martin's Eagles will be looking for their eighth victory of the season. Holly Ridge has lost four.

Holly Ridge defeated five 2-B foes to win their first district championship. They opened by edging Lake Providence, 7-6, crushed Start, 25-0, routed Columbia, 32-0, upset Mangham, 8-0, and shut out Southside, 21-0.

The non-district games, the Eagles beat Wisner, 14-12 and Crowley, the 3-B champion, 26-6. They lost to Rayville, 18-0, Farmerville, 6-0, Delhi, 39-0, and Oak Grove, 7-6, all class A outfalls.

Plain Dealing, which defeated Bernice, 21-0, last Friday in a playoff for the 1-B title, won 8 and lost 3 over the regular season. The 1-B champions defeated Haughton, 7-6, Sarepta, 14-0, Logansport, 6-0, Arcadia, 32-0, Stanley, 28-6, and Cotton Valley, 7-0, in district play while losing to Bernice, 7-6. Plain Dealing and Bernice tied for the championship, necessitating the playoff.

Plain Dealing lost to St. John, 18-6, and Homer, 35-7, and defeated Springhill "B", 27-7, and North Caddo "B", 27-12, in non-district activity.

Holly Ridge's fine line is led by all-district tackle Wayne Reddick, a 6-2, 195-pound senior, guard Cecil Vaughn, and center Floyd Smith.

Other returning Bastrop starters are Glenn Bryan, 5-8, and Ned Head, 5-11. The Rams, coached by Wig Riley, will be making their second appearance of the season. They dropped Oak Ridge, 58-41, in the opener.

Ab Elias, one of the top rebound men for the Irish, is still on crutches after suffering a badly sprained ankle last week. However, Charles Biggar, who missed the Epps contest due to illness, will be available for duty.

The Bastrop girls sextet will have three starters from last year's Class AAA runner-up team. At the guards will be Peggy Bonner, Vivian Jones, and Sue Bates. At the forwards will be Norma Brown and Carolyn Robinson, with the third forward post still undecided.

Vanderbilt rolled up 38 first downs against Washington and Lee in 1952 for the Southeastern Conference record.

Don Martin of Tech took first place honors, completing the course in 26 minutes, 6 seconds. Northeast's Jack Williams was only seconds behind with a time of 26.19. In third place was Lynn Chisholm of McNeese.

Top men for Northeast in the event besides Williams, were Buddy Eiland, 26.53, Bill Frye, 27.04, McCullen, 27.16, and Bob Jaenicke, 28.55.

Trophies were awarded to the first three finishers, while all others who completed the race received medals.

SAYS ERDELATZ

Army Should Be Bigger Favorite

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—His Navy team is more of an underdog in Saturday's game against Army in Philadelphia than it was in 1950 when it pulled one of the biggest upsets of the football classic, Coach Eddie Erdelatz says.

"They should be a bigger favorite than they are," Erdelatz maintains.

"This is the toughest Army game of my nine years as Navy coach."

Longhorns Stop Aggies With 27-0 Victory

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Darrell Royal has wound up his second season as football coach of the University of Texas doing twice as much as was expected of him.

Yesterday Royal's Longhorns whipped Texas A&M 27-0 before a national television audience in the traditional Thanksgiving Day game. It marked his second season in a row to beat Texas' oldest rivals.

This year there also was a triumph over Oklahoma, something Texas had been longing for—some that had gotten to be quite a sore spot in Longhorn football.

For the two seasons Royal has won 13, lost 6, tied 1 with a 7-3 record this year. And prospects look very bright for bettering that next fall with the squad bulging with veterans and one of the finest freshmen teams in history coming up to the varsity.

When Royal became coach last year the team had just wound up its worst season, winning one out of 10.

Gene Ramirez, one of those good backs who'll return next fall, was the big show as Texas beat Texas A&M yesterday. He scored three of the touchdowns and also intercepted one of Charley Misteard's passes in the end zone to kill an Aggie drive.

George Blanch, another of the returnees, recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass to get the first two scoring drives on the way. Mike Dowdle, the massive fullback, racked up 38 yards of a 65-yard surge and he also will be back in 1956.

Misteard had a good passing day except that he didn't throw for any touchdowns. He hit 14 of 33 for 191 yards but had 48 taken off the total because he was smothered several times by the hard-rushing Texas line. Three of his passes were intercepted.

Texas wound up with a good record but Royal said neither the players nor the coaches were interested in a bowl game even if they got a bid. Texas has been mentioned as a Gator Bowl prospect.

Royal thought his team had done all right this season. "I would have settled for that record just 7-3 — and beating Oklahoma and Texas A&M," the coach declared.

He feels that his 1950 team wasn't as much of a long shot as it appeared on paper against Army which had won 28 straight games.

"It's true we had won only two games, but we played stiff competition every week and Army's schedule then wasn't as tough as it is now," he recalled.

Navy's 14-2 victory nine years ago cinched the Navy coaching job for Erdelatz.

The task is harder this Saturday, in his opinion, because of "Army's versatility." Coach Earl Blaik has given Army a lot more passing and it is undefeated, but tied, again.

"Even if they don't throw they put the pressure on your defense just with the threat," says Erdelatz.

He is noted for his defensive coaching ability. He doesn't intend to shoot the works on trying to stop only Army's passing attack or its lonesome end, Bill Carpenter.

"I never gamble on defense," Erdelatz said.

The best chance for his team, the Navy coach believes, is on the passing of quarterback Joe Tranchesi.

It can win, he added, if it could put forth its best effort for the entire game.

"We have played in spurts during the season," Erdelatz continued. "We've done everything — we've been beaten good, we've won good, we came from behind to win and we have failed to come from behind."

While there isn't expected to be much noticeably new in Navy's defense for Army, word around the academy is that Erdelatz has cooked up something novel in the way of offense. It's an old trick for him to spring something on Army whom he has beaten five times and tied once in eight games.

AN UNANSWERED QUESTION

A philosophy professor once asked us, after we told him of our deer hunting plans for the holiday, "Why, Mr. Hanna, don't you know the deer don't want you shooting them?"

So we told him we supposed they didn't and he asked again, this time giving his grey mustache a confident twiddle, "Then why do you kill them?"

It was an unfair question, because, professor, to date we haven't been guilty of first-degree murder—an accessory, perhaps, but no murderer us.

In view of what Monday's dawn will bring in Northeast Louisiana, we're happy that our philosophical professor won't be in this neck of the woods. He'd be most frustrated in the midst of deer hunting men committing moral sin.

Northeast Louisiana, with its black gumbo Delta lands and palmetto swamps, is the beehive of Louisiana deer hunting. You'll see what we mean when the season opens Monday for a solid month.

With the greatest concentration in Tensas and Madison parishes, across these grounds walk the state's largest herds. East Carroll and Concordia parishes once again have good herds. Morehouse is coming into its own and Franklin reportedly has its greatest number of deer in years.

Even the area around Monroe is developing habitat to such a degree that Caldwell is having a season all its own this year, indicative that this area, with hardly a parish without deer, holds its own in the nation's herd of 10 million head.

A NEW LAW

For more about the professor's unanswered question, read on.

The season ushers in a new law, one which, although was made on the basis of biological studies, is curdling the blood of the oldtime deer hunter, not to mention a lot of other people.

The Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission defines a legal buck this season as one with "visible antlers," excluding the young males with only buttons or knobs. The legal buck last year had to have antlers at least three inches long.

So last week we raised a protest, requesting the Commission to further explain its new ruling. We weren't alone (in fact there were some game agents in the dark, too) in being somewhat confused in the definition of "visible antlers."

But the Commission now plainly states that young deer with only buttons are illegal targets. The Commission, in turning down a request by the Tensas Parish Police Jury to define a legal buck as one with "forked antlers," also has made it plain that the new regulation will go into effect.

We hope that future deer herds will hear out the Commission's theory that proper harvesting is the best way to manage a herd.

This thought, which was arrived at by men who study game management, would certainly puzzle the professor.

SOMETHING ADDED

While the Union Game Management Area in Union parish will enjoy another deer season, Caldwell will have its first. The Union Game Management Area season will be open December 3, 4 and 5th — one buck per hunter.

Meanwhile, hunters in the Columbia area will get a seven-day season in the Caldwell Game Management Area — from December 1-7, also one buck per hunter.

But hunters are cautioned to beware. Capt. Jesse Peyton warned sportsmen against shooting deer from the river and roads. They'll be patrolled. It just won't be tolerated.

Two other Northeast Louisiana game management areas will be open, at least part of the time, for hunting — Chicago Mills Game Management Area, December 28-January 1, antlerless deer only; and, Jackson - Bienville Game Management Area — December 12-16, bucks only, one.

It takes thousands of dollars to support these public shooting areas for men to kill.

What now, professor?

OUACHITA ALREADY

Even before the herd grew large enough to support a hunt, confusion arose in Ouachita Parish. At this moment, it's still a bit hazy to us.

It all started when the Ouachita Parish Police Jury wrote Commission Director F. Lamar Clement asking him about two small areas in the parish that had been opened for boundary purposes only.

But Clement didn't write back fast enough for the Police Jury and an ordinance was passed outlawing deer hunting in Ouachita parish. Chuckling Albin Lassiter, the district attorney, said, "It should have been done three years ago."

Actually he meant four years ago since it was at that time when the Commission began releasing deer in Ouachita Parish.

But, in an effort to help the hunters, the Commission opened these areas in Ouachita:

1. In Wards 1 and 2, all lands lying north of state highway 2 and state highway 554 and U. S. 165.

2. In Ward 9, all lands south of Cypress Creek, extending to the Ouachita and River.

In those areas, where Ouachita joins Jackson in one spot and Morehouse in another, the parish boundaries were difficult to determine because they were located in wooded sections.

Nevertheless, the Police Jury passed the ordinance, then waited around several days before getting it off to the Commission. At this writing, the Commission hadn't of-intent men have been driven beyond the realms of reason. In short, we will not become a part of any Tensas faction.

Under the laws of Louisiana, deer seasons are opened and closed by the Commission, which, however, makes a practice of heeding to the requests of police juries.

The Police jury in Tensas has spoken in the official voice of the people. Should the people become dissatisfied with the Commission's plan, then they should act through the Police Jury.

And on the same token, should the Commission cancel its plan, then people hurt by crop damages should act through the Police Jury.

Meanwhile, the officials of Tensas parish could set their people an example by sitting down and talking this thing out in hopes that a sound thought might prevail.

So it seems, professor, that the question has grown from why to how. We agree, the deer suffer most.

LITTLE MAN'S CORNER

The weather was warm, then it was cold. The little men made news afield.

Surprisingly enough, the ducks weren't as plentiful in the Wednesday cold snap as most people thought.

Joe Herring said they picked up some Wednesday on Wham Brake, but we had not word from there on Thanksgiving Day. Bill Minor at Black Bayou, on Thanksgiving Day, said there was a lot of shooting, but not many ducks, less kills.

We haven't heard from Canada, so don't think the big last flight is on.

At Lake Providence, the duck hunting was poor. However, Billy Regeneold got seven mallards in two days hunting. Jack Shaffer and Bill Burton got the limit on butterballs. Jerry Bayles and Billy Ray Harper bagged a goose apiece.

Also at Lake Providence, John Bolinger and grandson Ronnie Brasher killed 11 squirrels. The fishing was still good with the white perch and bream hitting in the barpits. Sam Foutz caught 19 white perch on minnows at the Chute and R. P. Shelton got 22 white perch there also.

Early deer kills were reported by J. W. (Red) Gilbert from Lake Providence. He killed a six-pointer on Pittman Island in Mississippi. At Mangham, Scott Harrell went to Glascock, Miss., and killed a nine-point buck.

More Mangham news. John Carter got the limit of spears at Big Lake. Jimmy Woods of Monroe joined J. C. Kenton in Woolen Lake to kill three ducks. In the goose-killing bracket were Alvin S. King, at Lafourche Curoff, and Bubba Bell.

James Carson of Winneshboro and Dan Carson of Monroe had real good luck just below King's Dump Dam. They used artificial bait on spinning rods and caught 45 barfish weighing from one-half to two and one-half pounds each.

I. C. Ford got the limit of squirrels in Franklin.

Three Monroe duck hunters, Henry Sanford, Harry Recouley and Don Ackel, motored to Sulphur and killed 11 geese. The Frenchmen are saying, Henry reports, there will be no ducks. They're not flooding the rice fields.

Calhoun Grabs

2 Games From

Huttig Cagers

HUTTIG, Ark. (Special) — The Calhoun cagers swept a twin bill from Huttig by scores of 50-37 in the girls game and 54-39 in the boys contest here last night.

Joyce Saxon chalked up 22 points in the girls victory, their seventh straight. Guards Bobbie Hale, Gloria Adams and Lorena White turned in a fine floor game for Calhoun. Dollar hit 21 for Huttig.

Spike Smith tallied 14 points to lead Calhoun in the boys game. Scottie Sims and Jerry Aulds followed with 13 each. The win gave Calhoun a record of seven wins against three losses.

Calhoun journeys to Downsboro for league contests in the girls and boys division next Tuesday.

Bass Of COP Wins 3 NCAA Grid Titles

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—College of the Pacific's Dick Bass, playing on a badly swollen big toe, hobbled off with three national football titles yesterday as the Tigers shattered Fresno State 52-6.

His teammates carried Bass from the field after he completed a season that hadn't been matched in 21 years.

The 189-pound, 5-foot 11-inch halfback from Vallejo, Calif., gained 130 yards in 30 carries, bucked for two touchdowns and caught a pass for a two-point conversion.

The performance gave him a ten-game total of 1,361 yards rushed in 205 carries; 1,440 yards in total offense in 217 plays, and 116 points scored — all three marks the best in the country.

Not since Byron "Whizzer" White of Colorado in 1937 has one player won all three titles in a single year.

"I really wasn't sure that I had won all those championships until the fellows picked me up after the game," said Bass. "I guess I was lucky to even get a chance to play."

"I hurt the toe in the second quarter against San Diego State and for a while we thought it was broken. I didn't run all week because I wanted to play against Fresno."

Bass grimaced as he eased his left foot into a street shoe. "They gave me a shot of novocaine and that helped," he said, "but even though I had good blocking, I couldn't get good footing. That big toe really hurt."

Several times Bass slipped and fell as he tried to cut to his left during the game. He admitted later he had trouble putting his weight on his left foot.

Bass has been plagued by leg injuries throughout his collegiate career. He broke a leg in Fresno in 1956 and was out for the remainder of the year.

Last year he missed the entire season with another leg injury. Thus he has a year of eligibility remaining. He plans to come back to COP and use it.

"I want to take advantage of my scholarship," he said, "and besides, I don't think I'm ready for professional football yet. I'm interested in radio and television work and I changed my major from general education to speech this year. I need another year to finish my new courses."

Byrd, Fair Park Tie 12-12 In

Crucial Game

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Fair Park and Byrd battled to a 12-12 deadlock Thursday with the tie securing the district one triple-A championship for Fair Park.

Favored Fair Park had to pull out from a 12-point deficit in the final period and score both its touchdowns. Tommy Terry picked a fumble out of the air and ran 39 yards for one tally. With two minutes remaining, Lonnie Harper dashed across from the nine. Both conversion attempts were wide.

Quarterback Sonny Parnell scored both touchdowns for Byrd. Both were on one-yard sneaks, the first in the opening period and the next in the third quarter. Both reconversion attempts were blocked.

NEUMANN SCORES TWICE

Tallulah Trojans, defending State Class A Champions, rolled over Bunkie's Panthers, 22-6, to gain a jarring runner, provided the Trojan spark that led to victory. Neumann scored the first Tallulah touchdown in the second period and added another in the third quarter to put the game on ice.

The winner of the St. Francis-Breaux Bridge contest tonight will play Gonzales next week end, with the winner slated to meet Tallulah in the championship game.

The Trojans drew first blood in the second quarter when Neumann took a handoff and went 58 yards off tackle to score. End Jerry Fairbanks kicked the point to make it 7-0.

In the third period Tallulah put together a 52 yard scoring drive with Neumann again going over from nine yards out. This time Fairbanks missed on the conversion attempt.

Bunkie pushed deep into Trojan territory late in the third period but the march fizzled on the Tallulah 22. Halfback Wayne Noland broke loose and dashed 56 yards down to the Bunkie 22. Three plays later he plunged over from the 3 for the third Trojan counter. Fairbanks booted the point to make the score 20-0.

Tallulah added a two-pointer in the last period when tackle Jerry McDonald crashed through to down Panther fullback Girard Juselin in the end zone as he attempted to punt.

The lone Bunkie score came on a Tallulah miscue. The Trojans fumbled deep in their own territory and the Panthers recovered assaults on the opposition. Army finds itself in the unusual position of leading the nation in forward pass offense with an average of 175.6 yards per game.

Navy is fifth. The Middies averaged 167.6 aerial yards per contest. The kicker is that neither of them rank in forward pass defense.

Navy's two losses were the direct result of the passing of Tulane's Richie Pettibon (14-6) and Notre Dame's George Izo (40-20). Army's only blemish was a 14-14 tie with Pitt fashioned on a touchdown pitch and deadlock-making two point pass by Ivan Tomic of the Panthers.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"Operation Upset," Navy's plan to wreck an unbeaten football season for Army, hinges on the work of sophomores tomorrow. The Cadets can find no solace in the fact that yearlings annually have played a vital role in the service classic since 1953.

Halfback Joe Bellino of Winchester, Mass., and fullback Joe Matalavage from Mahanoy City, Pa., spearhead the Middies' sophomore delegation primed for an assault on the veteran Cadet squad.

From Coach Eddie Erdelatz down, the word at NAVY IS that quarterback Joe Tranchini must click on his passes if the Middies are to pull their biggest surprise since their 1950 shocker which snapped a 28-game Cadet unbeaten string.

But without Bellino's breakaway threat and speed as a pass receiver and without the rugged Matalavage to share the line-busting chores with Ray Wellborn, Army could strangle the Navy aerial game by concentrating on it.

Army is a one touchdown favorite for this 50th meeting which will unfold before the usual capacity crowd of 102,000 plus a national television audience, beginning at 1:15 p.m. EST over NBC-TV.

The Cadets have perhaps the finest halfback tandem in the nation in Capt. Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson. They have their celebrated "lonesome end" offense with the defensive problems it creates and a quick, hard-hitting line.

In addition to the goal of the first undefeated Army season since 1949, seven Cadet senior starters have added incentive. They are eager to square matters with a Navy club they've never beaten as varsity performers. It was a 7-7 tie in 1956 and Navy won 14-0 last year.

For a team which traditionally counted on methodical infantry

Tulsa Invited

To Use Stadium

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP)—Harlingen, with an unused baseball stadium, Tuesday invited Tulsa of the Texas League, which is having stadium trouble to move here.

The recreation and sports committee of the Harlingen chamber of commerce voted to extend the invitation.

Harlingen last had a team in 1956 when it fielded a club in the class B Big State League.

A portion of the Tulsa stadium has been condemned by the Tulsa Building Inspector's Department.

Notre Dame & USC To Renew Grid Rivalry

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The very presence of a Notre Dame football squad used to produce a bit of quaking in these parts, and one memorable year even old Mother Earth got into the spirit of things. She shook real good that late autumn evening in 1948. The Coliseum did a roll 'n rock, scaring the daylight out of the few people till slaving away in the press box, and it's lucky the quake didn't hit earlier when all the fans were packed in the place.

There was a ready explanation for Mother Earth's behavior, however.

Just a few minutes before Southern California's Trojanans who entered the game rank underdogs, managed to produce a shock of their own — a 14-14 tie with the unbeaten and untied Fighting Irish.

Well, the Irish are back in town today, awaiting their 30th crack at the Trojans in one of the nation's greatest grid rivalries.

The Trojans may not be quaking just yet, but it's a safe bet there are tremors in their respective tummies.

They are quite aware of a passing phenom named George Izo, a crumpling fullback, Nick Pietrosante, two halfbacks named Red Mack and Jim Crotty and a great pass receiver, Monty Stickles.

The Trojans are big. Their line averages 206, including such young giants as Dan Ficca, the McKeever twins, Marlin and Mike, and Lou Byrd.

But the Irish are bigger. Their line averages 215, counting no less than four men who weigh 225 apiece. They are the two ends, Stickles and Bob Wetoska, center Bob Scholtz, and tackle Frank Geremia. Chuck Puntillo, the right tackle, and left guard Dick Shulsen are the midgeets. They only hit an even 200.

This is the end of the line for 1958 for both teams. The Irish, an exciting, pass-conscious outfit, has won five and lost four games. There wasn't a dull encounter in the lot.

The Trojans are 4-4-1, and some of its players, such as scrappy Little Don Buford, a halfback, or Hillard Hill, a superb pass catcher, can be exciting.

4 Lettermen Returning To Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A coin that hasn't been flipped: a horse that hasn't been raced or the 1958-59 University of Kentucky basketball squad. They're all unpredictable.

So says Coach Adolph Rupp, mightiest team builder of them all. Rupp's latest edition opens the season Monday night, entertaining Florida State.

Only four varsity men, including one starter, are returning from the team which won the NCAA championship last season. The new crop of sophomores are a hot-shooting team, says Rupp, but they don't look like the defensive material he had last year. Rupp notes that defense was the Wildcats' strong point in winning the championship.

The only returning starter is Johnny Cox, a 6-4 senior forward from Hazard, Ky. Gone are teammates Vernon Hatton, Adrian Smith, Ed Beck and John Crigler and six key reserves.

Moore Is Most Feared Pass Receiver In NFL

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE (AP)—Lenny Moore is the lonesome halfback for the Baltimore Colts. Opponents trying to keep company with him have been finding it a trifle fast.

The gangling halfback has become one of the most feared pass receivers in his third season in the National Football League.

He's caught 37 for 809 yards and six touchdowns. Only Del Shofner of Los Angeles has gained more—15 yards—and his own teammate Ray Berry's seven touchdowns are highest in the league.

The Rams last Sunday tried putting two men on Moore whose favorite starting point is away on the right flank. Moore got away from his two defenders seven times and one touchdown. He gained a total of 162 yards on his receptions.

Moore broke into pro football with a bang in 1956 after starting at Penn. State. The "Reading Rocket" ran for 649 yards.

Last season, he began to evolve as a great pass catcher, taking in 40 for 687 yards to be fifth among the league receivers.

As he became a real two-way threat, Moore has run less than as a rookie. He has gained only 392 by rushing in the nine games to date.

But he can still go on his long legs which prompted one observer to quip "they seem to go all the way up to his armpits." He has run for six touchdowns to give him an even dozen, second highest in the circuit.

Besides his speed, Moore is a tremendous fader and sometimes has defenders literally running in circles. His teammate, Big Daddy Lipscomb, calls him Sputnik.

It's easy for the fans to follow Moore. He looks like he's wearing white spats. He tapes his ankles outside his shoes and socks, saying it provides more support.

He had an injured knee midway in the season and didn't carry the ball once against Green Bay Nov. 2. However, Moore caught a pass for a touchdown and ran 50 yards after grabbing another.

Colorado State Rallies To Beat Denver, 9 To 8

DENVER (AP)—Colorado State University staged its customary second half comeback to edge Denver 9-8 in a Skyline conference football game played in a fierce snowstorm Thursday.

The temperature hovered around 16 degrees but 4,130 fans braved the frigid conditions to watch the traditional rivals close their season.

Colorado State captured fourth place in the conference with a 4-3 mark and Denver dropped into a tie with Utah State for sixth and seventh at 2-5.

Navy To Use 2 Teams On Army

By HERB THOMPSON

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Navy's leading scorer and ground gainer will be sitting on the bench for the kickoff in the Army game Saturday — a tipoff to the two-team strength which the Middies are counting on to overcome the Cadets' high-powered offense.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz confirmed today that he will start senior Ray Wellborn at fullback instead of Joe Matalavage, the sophomore sensation who has ripped through opponents for 262 yards and five touchdowns this season.

DeJohn Picked To Win Over Besmanoff

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Big Mike DeJohn of Syracuse is a 7-5 choice to whip stocky Will Besmanoff of Germany in a 10-round televised fight at Madison Square Garden tonight.

If the 6-3, 205-pound upstate fighter ever worked up to his potential he would be at least 5-0 over the former Munich baker.

But the handsome, 26-year-old DeJohn just doesn't like to train too hard. If he only worked half as hard as his stablemate, former welter and middleweight champion Carmen Basilio, he would be a cinch to be among the top three contenders.

"I know, I know," said Mike, "but I just don't like to run early in the morning."

"Or any other time of day," someone added.

Even without much exercise, DeJohn has compiled a 35-3-1 record, including 25 kayos, and is ranked ninth among the contenders. This year, however, he is 1-2. He dropped a split decision to Cuban giant Nino Valdes, beat Bob Baker, and then lost another split verdict to Valdes — the last one on Aug. 15.

Willie's record is 38-12-7 including 15 knockouts.

Scoring will be by rounds. A supplementary point system also will be used to break draws.

Bob Pettit Scores 42 Pts. As Hawks Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Al Cervi may not have known when he was well off.

Two months ago, Cervi grabbed at the chance to coach the Philadelphia Warriors. He was on the sidelines all of last season following his resignation as coach of the Syracuse Nationals in Nov. 1956.

Then came the first piece of bad news. Neil Johnston, one of National Basketball Assn.'s leading scorers, was hurt in an exhibition game. He was operated on three weeks ago for removal of loose cartilage from his left knee. Johnston is not expected back until mid-December.

Now the Warriors may have to get along without the services of Tom Gola, the former All-American from LaSalle, who has been doing a bangup job for Philadelphia.

Gola suffered a severe sprain of his left ankle in the second minute of last night's game against Boston. The disheartened Warriors went on to drop a 107-94 verdict to the Celtics.

The St. Louis Hawks, behind the sharpshooting of Bob Pettit and Clyde Lovellette, whipped the Syracuse Nationals 107-98 in the only other game.

The Celtics streaked past the Warriors with a second period drive that carried them to a 59-46 lead at halftime. Philadelphia never came closer than six points after that. Bill Sharman took game scoring honors with 31 points.

Woody Sauldsberry had 25 for the Warriors.

Pettit scored 42 points and Lovellette had eight baskets in eight fourth quarter attempts as the Hawks won their fourth in five games under new coach Ed Macauley. The score was 76-61 at the end of three quarters but Pettit and Lovellette combined to score all but one of St. Louis' 31 points in the fourth quarter surge.

Dolph Schayes and Red Kerr shared scoring honors for the Nats with 23 points.

Red Brodnax To Be Feted In Home Town

BASTROP (Special) — Today will be "Red" Brodnax Day in Bastrop.

Red, the son of J. W. Brodnax, will finish up his football career at LSU on Jan. 1 in the Sugar Bowl game.

He will be honored at a banquet at the Pines Club tonight, with 125 persons expected to attend.

Special guests will be members of the 1954-55 Bastrop High School football team, the last one on which Brodnax played before entering Louisiana State University.

His coach of that year, Eddie Harrelson, and the end coach at LSU, Abner Wimberly, will be present.

Brodnax is regarded as the greatest football player Bastrop has ever produced.

Committee members for the special day will include Judge Mack E. Barham, Ted Flynn and Ray Kruger.

Miss Frances Flanders Speaks To Quota Club

Miss Frances Flanders was the November speaker for the Monroe Quota Club at its regular program meeting held this week at the Frances Hotel. Mrs. Lynn Alford and Miss Marjorie Black were the hostesses for the meeting.

Assorted fruits and vegetables in a beautiful crystal compote was the colorful centerpiece. On either side were black wrought iron candelabra which held orange candles. Cornucopias filled with fruit were used as centerpieces on the other tables.

Members of the LaVing club enjoyed a monthly luncheon meeting Nov. 19 at the Highland Park Country club in West Monroe. After the club collect in unison, the president, Mrs. George Y. Phebus presided over a brief business session. Mrs. Wayne Warren gave a report on plans for Christmas projects.

Mrs. W. O. Webb as program chairman, presented the guest speaker, Father Marshall, Episcopal rector of St. Patrick's Church of West Monroe. He brought a very inspiring message using "Motives and Actions" as his theme, stating Christians grow toward maturity in the three-fold duties of Christians, where inner motives and actions act as a springboard for further meditation and dedication for the advancement of the love of our Lord and work to further His Gospel, as well as individual depth to fundamental deeper daily devotion.

Members enjoying the meeting were: Mrs. A. D. Bernhardt, Mrs. D. E. Bivins Jr., Mrs. Bruce Brooks, Mrs. William Crow, Mrs. T. H. Scott, Mrs. J. T. Conger, Mrs. Wayne Warren, Mrs. Leon Sutton, Mrs. Charles Koonz, Mrs. W. O. Webb, Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, Mrs. L. D. Ritter, Mrs. Ralph Norman.

Rev. Bradshaw Speaks At BPWC Nov. Meeting

The regular program meeting of the Business & Professional Women's Club was held Tuesday, November 25 at the Y. W. C. A. The president, Mrs. B. L. Meek, opened the meeting by introducing a guest, Rev. Hugh Bradshaw, of the Memorial Presbyterian Church of West Monroe, who spoke briefly on the need of a hospital in Ward Five.

An announcement was then made of a Christmas party to be held in the home of Mrs. Laura Slater, 2113 South Grand St., on December 9th at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Billie Harrell, chairman for the program on Personal Grooming in turn introduced Mrs. Yalthe Willis who spoke on cosmetics and the part they play in grooming. "Make the most of your own features and always rely on a trained person whose business it is to know the proper make-up for each type and age group," she said.

Mrs. Harrell then introduced Mrs. Nethal McDermott who acted as narrator for three lovely models who portrayed costumes suitable for the business woman.

Mrs. Kathryn Higgins modeled a business suit with matching accessories.

Mrs. Helen Trichel modeled an after five dress, complete with mink stole and matching accessories.

Mrs. Billie Harrell modeled a dress equally suitable for the office or church, with a delightful pill box hat.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Maibel Hood, Mrs. Alma Bushnell, Ava White, Faye Heard, Addie Lou Juneman, Helen Trichel, Lula Swinson, Eura Coake, Nethal McDermott, Marguerite Meek, Lucille Mathis, Arline Dresser, Marguerite Williamson, Carice King, Jewel Wise, Mildred F. ## Mrs. Watson Speaks To PTA At Logtown

The Logtown Parent Teacher Association met recently for the monthly meeting and it was a most interesting one. The guest speaker was Mrs. Jane Watson from the Louisiana Power and Light Company. Mrs. Watson spoke about nutrition and the importance of a better breakfast. It was very enlightening and educational.

Miss Marie Filhiol, principal, showed an interesting film on National Education Week.

Reports were given on the chicken - spaghetti supper and it was a success. The Association thanked all mothers and teachers that contributed and helped, especially Mrs. Roy Anderson and her committee. It also thanked the News-Star - World Publishing Company and others that helped publicize the supper. The door prize was won by Mrs. Antley, James McKay the eighth grade teacher, reported on the first school annual the eighth graders are publishing. He also told about the opening of the basketball season. The games will be held at night making it possible for more parents to attend.

December 11 is the date of the next meeting and promises to be a fine one. There will be a Christmas party and every member is asked to bring a present. Numbers will be drawn for the presents.

Party Series For Young Couple Prior To Marriage

Mrs. Sam Thomas Batton and Mrs. Wilburn Patrick entertained for Miss Virginia Napastiuk, bride-elect of Ernest Glynde Mangum.

The party was a morning coffee in the home of Mrs. Batton near Transylvania. Fall arrangements of bronze and gold chrysanthemums were used throughout the party area.

Friends of Miss Napastiuk came throughout the morning for the social hours.

OYSTER SUPPER
Complimenting Miss Virginia Napastiuk and Mr. Ernest Glynde Mangum were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips. They entertained with an oyster supper in their home in Schneider Lane, Lake Providence.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Phillips were Mrs. Charles McClung and Mrs. William K. Gore. Those who enjoyed the supper and evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn E. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClung and Mr. and Mrs. William K. Gore, the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and the honorees, Miss Napastiuk and Mr. Mangum.

COFFEE
Another lovely affair for Miss Virginia Napastiuk held prior to her marriage to Ernest Glynde Mangum, was the party hosted by Mrs. S. K. Mitchiner and Mrs. Ernest Wilson, at the Mitchiner home on Olivedell Plantation.

Golden marigolds and purple heather were effectively used on the tea table and autumn hued chrysanthemums were placed at various points in the party rooms.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. Kiley E. Mangum were hosts for the Napastiuk - Mangum rehearsal dinner, in their home in Lake Providence. Dinner was served prior to the church rehearsal and was served buffet style from a long dining table on the spacious porch of the Mangum's home.

The centerpiece for the table was made up of potted plants and multiple hued chrysanthemums from the flower gardens of Mrs. Mangum.

The bride-elect chose this occasion to present her attendants with silver necklaces with cultured pearl pendants and those presenting the bridal music received gifts of perfume.

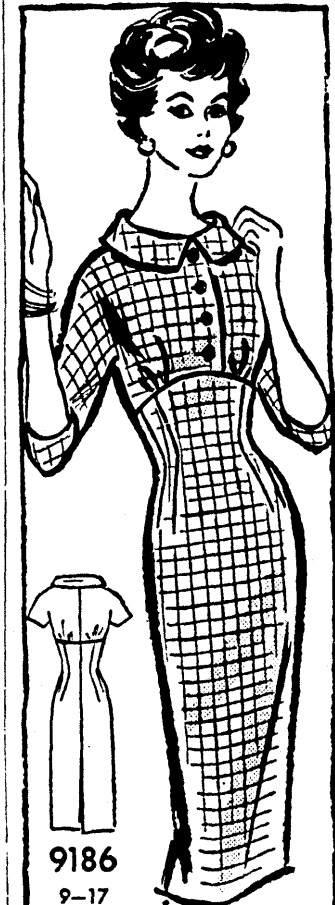

The groom-elect presented his attendants with cuff links and tie clasps.

'DEAR ABBY'

Four Good Reasons For Forgiving Him

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I know I'm a darned fool, but I am so much in love I can't see straight. Bruce knows I'd do anything in the world for him, but he just uses me to get filled in on other girls. He gets interested in a new girl about every two weeks, and asks me to "fill him in" on who she is, where she works and how she likes him. Bruce knows I have been in love with him ever since we were kids, but so far he treats me like a pal. I keep hoping that one day he will return my love. Please, Abby, how can I get Bruce to treat me like a sweetheart instead of a pal?

ONLY A PAL

DEAR ONLY: If anything gets "filled in" it should be the holes in your head. A smart girl does not "fill in" a man with whom she is in love on details concerning the competition. Drop this helpful routine or you'll regret it.

I believe you would find a dress and jacket costume very wearable. Choose it with a slim dress and the new loosely shaped jacket without curves. For flattery select the jacket with a good neckline of the type cut away from the neck but finished with a flange or collar. A lightweight woolen or silk fabric in a dark color or print should be becoming and useful for the winter season ahead.

CLOTHES QUIZ:

Slim Dress And Jacket Are Useful

By BETH BLAIR

The useful dress and jacket costume is a two-way fashion you'll find most useful during the holiday season. Whether you plan to buy or make a new outfit, consider the new slim dress that can stand on its own with pretty neckline and have a completely different look when topped by the matching jacket. A reader writes:

Dear Miss Blair: I am quite short and do not like to wear suits, but I wonder if I could wear one of the dress and jacket costumes. I am five foot one and rather heavy. What type jacket should it have?

GUEST SPEAKER

The Lake Providence Parent Teacher Association will have as the main speaker at their December 4 meeting Miss Lillian Edwards. Miss Edwards is the public health educator serving the northern half of Louisiana. She works from the regional office at Monroe, Miss Edwards is a former teacher. One program a year on health is suggested by the national P.T.A. for every local group. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the high school at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. L. E. Townsend, Jr., president, will be in charge with no business session scheduled for this pre-holiday meeting.

Alternating at the tea table were the granddaughters of Mrs. Regenold, Mrs. Harold Thomas, Mrs. Joe M. Mott, III, Mrs. Casper M. Lenzing, Miss Shearon Regenold and Miss Gay Schneider. Her other granddaughters Wallis Regenold and Nanette Schneider and great granddaughter, Madeline Lenzing, received the birthday gifts and placed them on the gift table. They assisted also in the other courtesies of the afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Porter Regenold was born Gussie Henderson in Paris, Texas and was married to the late Frederick Porter Regenold in 1900. Of the five children born to the union, four are still living and were present for the celebration of their mother's birthday. They are W. E. Regenold of Tallulah, Fred Regenold, Mrs. Patti R. Land and Mrs. Sara R. Schneider of Lake Providence.

BAXTER BAYOU HDC
Mrs. W. H. Maben hosted the Baxter Bayou Home Demonstration Club recently in her home in Lake Providence.

Mrs. R. C. Johnson, presided and opened the meeting with the club collect. Mrs. H. T. Van Fossen served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. W. F. Bonner, Sr.

The date for the annual Christmas party for the club was set for December 12. The project for the coming year was discussed. It was agreed that for the Christmas meeting, each member would bring a cash donation for a needy family to replace the usual membership exchange of gifts. Food and clothing will also be brought for the White Christmas box. Serving on the program for the day were Mrs. Selma Davis, Mrs. W. H. Maben, Mrs. John Burns and Mrs. Dewey Baker.

A congealed salad course and coffee were served by the hostesses to Mrs. W. D. Baker, Mrs. Selma Davis, Mrs. John Burns, Mrs. J. C. Hannak, Mrs. R. K. Howard, Mrs. R. C. Johnson, Mrs.

Those women ought to take a man along—to protect the doctor!

DOCTOR'S NURSE

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when you find out your husband has been going with another woman and when he thought he was in trouble comes to you and asks for your help? Crazy as it sounds, I stood by him and saw him through the whole mess. Am I out of my mind for forgiving him and helping him? We have four children and I want to know if you think they are good enough reason for swallowing my pride?

FORGIVING

DEAR FORGIVING: I do not know of four better reasons.

LAST OF A SERIES

Automatic Ironing Is The Answer

The problem of household drudgery is no newcomer to this nation. For example, here is an excerpt from a diary kept by George Washington. The date of the entry is 1789, the year Washington took office as the first president of the United States.

Referring to a visit he had paid to the home of his friend, one Benjamin Franklin, Washington wrote:

"Visited a machine at Doctor Franklin's, for pressing, in place of ironing clothes, as from the wash," he wrote. "Which machine, from the facility with which it dispatches business is calculated for such articles as tablecloths, and would be very useful in large families."

Franklin, a deviser of clever phrases and instruments, readily recognized the fact that women had a rough row to hoe. And that magnificent mind had set about fashioning a device to help relieve some of the back-breaking labor from housework. His machine was heated with charcoal, and while crude, served as a practical demonstration of what could be done to make ironing less tedious.

The problem of ironing kept bothering a lot of people through the years, and in 1878 the first electric ironing machine was actually placed on the market. It was a complicated device, and left a great deal to be desired, but it was a positive step forward in the movement to free the housewife from the objectionable work of ironing. Other types of ironing machines followed—some hand-operated, others employing foot power. And at the same time the new, miraculous force of electricity was assuming ever greater importance in the role of household servant.

In the last decade of the 19th century various devices operated by electricity began to assist the housewife in her chores such items as vacuum cleaners, electric irons, etc.

The domestic ironing machine at that time was an off-shoot from the old power ironers made for commercial laundries. It was a huge, clumping thing that labored mightily to supplant hand ironing, but was not the real answer. Early methods of this type began to appear in the homes of the wealthy about 1905, operated by a hand crank. In 1907 a belt-driven, electrically powered ironing machine was manufactured—and some were actually sold—and then in 1908 the first direct-driven electric ironer made its bow. In the 1920's the machines began to show up on the market in modified form; smaller, more compact, more versatile and a whole lot more efficient.

Today's ironers are things of great practicality, not to mention their attractive appearance and compactness. And more and more women are discovering that freedom from the task of ironing by hand.

Here at last is the answer to a hundred thousand anguished cries for help, for deliverance from the dirty, backbreaking job of pushing a hand iron over yard after yard of clothing, week in and week out. Deliverance from the cardiac ailments that have been attributed to long sessions at an ironing board; release from the perils of headaches and sore arms and shoulders that accompany the weekly bout at the ironing board. Mechanical relief from the dreary routine that is the most soundly ingrained facet of today's housekeeping.

The trim white automatic electric ironer of today represents an end to the slavery of the ironing board, and it won't be too long before the accumulated clumps of millions of old hand irons being tossed on the scrap heaps of the nation will send up a thunder that tells the world:

"The hand iron is as dead as the dodo, thank heaven."

Teen-agers Mob Next Empress

By FRED SAITO
TOKYO (AP) — Thousands of screaming, crying bobbysoxers broke through police lines today to mob the car carrying the young woman who has been nominated from their ranks to become Japan's next empress.

Miss Michiko Shoda and her parents were going to visit Crown Prince Akihito. The prince and Michiko were alone for an hour on their second visit together.

since their engagement was announced Thursday. Michiko, beautiful daughter of a wealthy flour mill owner, is the first commoner in the 26-century history of the Japanese imperial family to become the prospective empress. She and Akihito, both 24 years old, will be married next spring or autumn.

The couple met on a tennis court 15 months ago and saw each other only rarely. Akihito, barred by court etiquette from dating anyone, pushed his suit by telephone. After the Imperial Household Council announced the engagement, they saw each other briefly at the palace.

Michiko and her parents called on Akihito today at his mansion, separate bachelor quarters away from the palace.

MOB SCENE

They stayed for 70 minutes. Associates said Akihito's tutors suggested to the Shodas that "we old folk leave the young couple alone and let them talk," giving Akihito and Michiko an hour together.

The visit began just as most Japanese schools were closing for the day, freeing thousands of girls from 8 to 18. They swarmed around the mansion chanting: "Our future empress... Shoda-san, Shoda-san (Honorable Shoda)." The mob scene far surpassed any caused here by movie stars or rock 'n' roll singers. Veteran reporters said they could not recall a similar scene in Tokyo, although visits of Emperor Hirohito to remote provincial towns have occasionally produced similar excitement.

The demonstration exemplified the new close relationship between Japanese and their royal family, which was held in distant awe before democratization moves by American occupation forces after World War II. Akihito's engagement to a commoner culminated the process of bringing the crown close to the man in the street — and the screaming bobbysoxers.

Ike's Carving Troubled By Dull Knife

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—It was a grand Thanksgiving Day for the Eisenhowers — even though the President had a bit of trouble carving a 35-pound turkey.

He blamed it on a dull knife. The President and the First Lady were joined at dinner by their son, Army Maj. John Eisenhower, his wife and their four children.

Dinner was served on the sun porch of the President's vacation residence at the Augusta National Golf Club. It was a gay table with a centerpiece of chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli.

The golden brown turkey was stuffed with a dressing of oysters and corn bread.

There also were heaping dishes of mashed potatoes and gravy, green peas, squash and cranberry sauce. For dessert—to the children's delight — there was ice cream.

Only one reporter, representing all the others, was permitted to be on hand as the family started dinner. He gave this account:

The President, in a cheery mood and a bright green jacket the Augusta National members wear, pitched into the carving job with zest and a show of expertise—at first.

But he quickly ran into difficulty in trying to slice the meat from a big drumstick. Finally son John came to his help and held the joint while the President pared off the meat.

The trouble, Eisenhower decided, was the carving knife.

"Where did this come from?" he inquired, brandishing the knife. "Oh, it's been around a long time," Mrs. Eisenhower told him. "Well, I haven't got my glasses on so I can't see very good," the President alibied.

When he got around to serving he asked the children whether they wanted light or dark meat. They all said light.

"Well, you just don't know what's good—or maybe I don't," he said. Actually, however, he ate both—white and dark.

Count Expected To Swell Lead Of Democrats

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — The counting of votes from Tuesday's Alaska general election resumed today after a Thanksgiving recess. The new ballots were expected to add more weight to the Democratic landslide.

The new state's two Senate seats, one House seat and the Alaska governorship went to Democrats and Democrats took absolute control of the 60-member, bicameral Legislature.

E. L. (Bob) Bartlett, Alaska's nonvoting delegate to Congress for the last 14 years, easily outdistanced two rivals for one Senate seat.

When the counting was closed off Wednesday night with 213 of 287 precincts in, Bartlett had 29,888 votes to 5,405 for Republican R. E. Robertson and 414 for independent Keith Capper.

Mrs. Nixon Joins Bustling Throngs For Yule Shopping

LONDON (AP) — Mrs. Richard Nixon joined the bustling throngs of Christmas shoppers in a London department store Thursday.

"I'm having a great time," she told a sales girl. "But I must buy something for my two daughters."

The problem of getting time to buy presents for "Tricia, 12, and Julie, 10, had nagged at her mind all through a seven-hour program of visits to children's homes, a school and welfare organizations.

"I guess I'll have to get someone to buy those presents for me," she said at the height of her official engagements.

But late in the afternoon the opportunity came and she grabbed it. She and her lady in waiting, Mrs. Edwin Martin, wife of the economics minister at the U. S. Embassy here, sped off to fashionable Knightsbridge.

The snap decision caught everyone flatfooted—including the Scotland Yard detective who was escorting the vice president's wife.

The two women bustled into the crowded store and through the women's wear section with the sheepish detective in tow.

Mrs. Nixon admired a woolen two-piece outfit. "How much is that?" she asked an assistant.

"Twelve pounds (about $33), madam."

"My goodness," she laughed. "That's more than I paid for mine."

Finally she settled on some fluffy wool bonnets with long tassels, and bought two.

Forty minutes later she left with the hats—her sole purchases—and a bill for $4.44.

The Scotland Yard detective looked dazed.

Couple Adopts 74 Children In Ky. Home

CAMPTON, Ky. (AP)—The Tabor love children. All children.

After raising six of their own and 16 others for working couples, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tabor, now in their 70s, are still at it.

Their latest undertaking is 74 miles on small faces, hugs, and adopted youngsters at a children's home near this little eastern Kentucky town.

The couple spent Thanksgiving Day with them after making their first trip together in 53 years of marriage.

Kentucky Gov. A. B. Chandler made possible the trip to the Bethany Children's Home from their Belleville, Mich., home.

Chandler read about the children taking an interest in the children and sent them round-trip tickets.

When they got to the home, they were greeted by a big sign reading: "Welcome Grandma and Grandpa Tabor." There were shy

While Mrs. Tabor read to some of the youngsters, Grandpa, a 75-year-old retired carpenter, put on overalls and went to the dairy barn to see if he could help out.

Mrs. Tabor said she learned about the home from a daughter and "decided to adopt the youngsters."

"I just plain wanted something to do. All my youngsters were grown and gone."

The couple has sent the home food they canned and clothing they made for four years. In return they joined in a big turkey dinner.

Tear Gas Breaks Up Sect's March

KRESTOVA, B.C. (AP) — Four hundred demonstrating Sons of their spiritual leader Stefan Freedom Doukhobors were dispersed by tear gas bombs Thursday night as they started what was to be a 53-mile march to New Denver.

The Doukhobors, many of them elderly and all wearing their best clothes, were stopped by 15 Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers and told to disperse.

The Doukhobors said they were only celebrating the 57th birthday of their spiritual leader Stefan Sorokin. Ignoring the RCMP orders, they knelt in the snow. Some prayed, others sang.

They held their ground as the mounties fired one tear gas shell to the edge of their group. Finally, after three more shells were fired, they dispersed and filed slowly back to their homes here.

"They can walk to New Denver any time they feel like it," one RCMP officer said. "But not in a group that covers the highway."

The defiant Sons of Freedom have long been a headache to the British Columbia and Canadian governments. They have been blamed generally for many acts of violence to show their scorn of the law, including the bombing of bridges, railroad tracks and public buildings.

Kills Self After Long Consideration

GUTTENBERG, N.J. (AP) — For 20 minutes Arthur Eisen, 45, sat looking into the muzzle of the rifle he was holding while his daughter and a policeman tried to talk him out of committing suicide. Then he pulled the trigger. He died instantly.

Patrolman Daniel Dandorf told this story:

One of Eisen's teen-age daughters, Audrey, ran into police headquarters and cried that her father had a rifle and might hurt someone.

Dandorf rushed to the home and found Eisen's family downstairs. Eisen was in his second-floor flat alone.

When Dandorf reached the second floor he heard Eisen shout through the door, "The first cop that comes in here I'll kill him."

Dandorf started talking—fast. It did no good. "If you open that door I'll kill you," was the only reply he got.

He went downstairs and told the family to stay put.

Another of Eisen's daughters, Evelyn, disregarded the order, dodged past him and ran upstairs.

Dandorf followed her into the apartment and found her in the bedroom, pleading with her father.

He was sitting on the bed, a 22-caliber rifle between his knees. Dandorf started talking again.

"I talked to him about 20 minutes," he said later. "I had just about talked him into giving up the idea. Suddenly he put his head down on the muzzle of the rifle and pulled the trigger. He died instantly."

Eisen leaves his widow, three daughters and a son.

Police said Eisen had family troubles, and had suffered recurring headaches.

'Mr. Peru' To Celebrate 75th Birthday

LIMA, Peru (AP) — A North American known and respected as Mr. Peru celebrates his 75th birthday Sunday.

He is Dr. Albert Anthony Giesecke, who came here from Philadelphia 49 years ago as a young schoolteacher. He planned to remain only a short time, but he stayed to make his mark in education, politics and diplomacy.

Over the years he has packed his bags a dozen times to return home, but the call to service and love of his adopted country always changed his mind.

Dr. Giesecke, though past the normal pension age of 70 for American diplomats, serves at the U. S. Embassy as special assistant to the ambassador. The U. S. State Department waived retirement regulations in response to a plea from Peruvians for their old friend and adviser to remain.

Dr. Giesecke came to Peru officially as a member of a four-man American commission to help the government reorganize the country's education system.

With the job completed, he stayed on the invitation of President Augusto B. Leguia to become rector of the San Antonio Abad University of Cuzco. The university had been closed for several months in a controversy involving politics and a student strike against the faculty over old-fashioned methods of teaching.

Dr. Giesecke introduced many new things, including a sports program—basketball, baseball and tennis. His fraternization with the students at first shocked older faculty members. But he won the confidence of the faculty as well as the students, and enrollment trebled.

After 13 years as rector, Dr. Giesecke resigned and again prepared to go home. He gave in to Peruvians' pleas that he become their director general of education.

He married a Duzco girl, Esther Matto, a member of one of the oldest Spanish families living in South America.

Though education was his principal field, Dr. Giesecke took other roles in Peruvian life. He was a member of the Peruvian delegation that helped set the stage for the peace treaty ending the Peruvian-Chilean War. He was elected to the Town Council.

With the overthrow of President Leguia in a military group in 1930, Giesecke packed again. This time the U. S. ambassador asked him to stay as his special assistant. He did and became a founder, with leading Peruvians, of the Peruvian-American Cultural Institute.

Grass and brush fires on the open range in U. S. burn more than an average of 250,000 acres annually.

IN ENGLAND

Who Ever Heard Of Thanksgiving?

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—As an American domiciled in England, we feel we should celebrate the British holidays and let it go at that. But our wife is the sentimental type.

With two small children, she claims we should celebrate Thanksgiving.

We argue that the kids couldn't care less, we are personally against it and our English neighbors will think we are nuts. In due course, we found ourselves dickered for a turkey.

According to the poultry man, there has been a severe outbreak of pip on the British turkey ranches. The price was about 98 cents a pound.

According to us, the poultry man would be told what to do with turkeys at 98 cents a pound, but our wife was firm. She said a 15-pounder was about right. This means we will still be getting the eyes, ears, nose and throat in hash a fortnight later.

So we spent $14.70 for a turkey. The kind of turkey we got, if there were any justice the pip would have got him first.

We buy cranberry sauce, from Sweden, at 84 cents a small can. And mixed nuts in the shell at 63 cents a pound. And a pumpkin big enough to make one pumpkin pie (which we despise) for $1.12.

Comes the day.

The kids have never heard of Thanksgiving. Our efforts to explain about the Pilgrims fall on deaf ears. They don't like turkey. They don't like pumpkin pie either.

"Why do we do this?" we ask.

"What does Thanksgiving mean to about the taste, but you could tell he loved the texture."

"Okay, he loved the texture. We spent $20 or $25 a the kid can love the texture of cranberry sauce?"

Cranberry sauce is part of the heritage of every American child.

LONDON — Mrs. Richard M. Nixon, on learning her husband, the vice president, had to borrow a tuxedo to attend a Thanksgiving dinner with Queen Elizabeth because he didn't bring one along.

"This is the first trip he ever went on that I didn't pack for him, and it will never happen again. Somebody in Washington ... forgot to pack it and it wasn't me."

Some department stores use dog for patrol and security duty.

Nora Eddington Flynn, who enjoys the distinction of being the ex-wife of both Errol Flynn and Dick Haymes, dined at Goldie's with photographer's model Jim Horn.... William Zeckendorf's offer of $45,000 for the Shubert empire represents Clint Murchison — Paul Getty money. Bill's acting as front man.

Ava Gardner's friends report she's bored with Europe and in a mood to return to California to accept some fabulous independent film deals — so get ready for the will — she or won't she return — to Frankie? stories.... Linda Christian hasn't forgotten how to attract attention. After expressing her distress over Tyrone Power's death, she went shopping starting in an all-black costume attired with an over-sized lam-o-shanter (almost like a pillowcase) and ending in a light hemline that barely reached her knees.

An interesting off-camera scene followed the televised portion of the "Mardi Gras" premiere at the Paramount Theatre. Gray Crosby's date, glamour girl Charbi Lancelot, fumed for several minutes while Gary was interviewed by the m.c., and when it turned out she wasn't even identified, she gave Gary what for and left the scene of the crime in a snit. (A snit is even worse than a huff).

Minor music world casualty: Cannonball Adderly is in Manhattan General Hospital after surgery.... Senator Jack Kennedy "slayed" the girls on the MGM lot when he visited brother-in-law Peter Lawlor there. One Author-

lative hand described it as "the most devastating experience since Yul Brynner."

Edith Piaf has resumed her romance with singer Felix Marten — an attachment so serious it drove her to the point of a breakdown when they tiffed some months ago. She now visits him daily on the set of his new film, "Attempt to Escape," and neither one appears to want to make a secret of their grande passion.... The famous team of Stump and Stumpy — they did songs dances and comedy — have reunited after a three

MY ANSWER

by Billy Graham

QUESTION: My husband and I both try to do right, but jealousy has entered our marriage and there is absolutely no reason for it. Could you tell me how I can overcome this jealousy?

A. V. ANSWER: Jealousy with out cause is a terrible disease. It's bad enough when one has reason to be jealous.

I think you and your husband are jealous because you are bored with each other. You haven't any great purpose or cause to fight for, so you fight each other. I have known of couples with great gifts, with boundless energy, and with a need for belonging, who for some reason couldn't find the outlets for their energies and became bored, fed up, and jealous of each other.

My suggestion is that you find a Christian outlet for your gifts and talents. Teach a Sunday School class, clothe an orphan, adopt a child, visit the sick. Anything to get your minds off yourselves. The best of us would be miserable if we had no high challenges. That's what the Bible means when it says: "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might." There is joy in sharing with and helping others. Look at Christ. He was never bored. He shared His healing power, His wisdom, His love, His food, and at last, His very life. We can often find ourselves by losing ourselves in some great, noble Cause. Jesus said: "He that loseth his life shall find it." Get lost in God's service and you'll never quibble over petty jealousy again.

Mental Hospital Has Open Doors

DENVER — (UPI) — A newly organized hospital is treating a "borderline group" of mentally ill patients in Denver without locks or restraints.

Colorado State Rep. John E. Stretzler, president of the National Mental Health Center, said its patients are persons too sick to be at home but not sick enough to be placed behind locked doors.

"In severity of illness these patients are on the borderline between those who are easily able to function in spite of their problems and those who have lost the ability to deal adequately with everyday problems," Stretzler said.

He said it was frequently found that these patients would have little hope of getting well if they were to continue living without medical aid. The National Mental Health Center, Stretzler said, tries to help the patients understand themselves better so they can more satisfactorily cope with their difficulties.
